Johnson Pushes For Compromise Rights Measure

Republicans Also Surveying Chances
For Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) pressed for a compromise bill today while the Southern filibuster against civil rights legislation gathered momentum.

Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La.) set a new speechmaking record for the current day-and-night debate even as the Senate Democratic leader began talking up a new bill in conferences with Democratic proponents of civil rights amendments. Republicans also were surveying chances of a compromise.

Speaks Over 9 Hours

Long, son of the late filibustering Huey P. Long, spoke for 9 hours and 21 minutes before yielding the floor early today. With a 75-minute break for other Senate speeches, he held the floor from 1:32 p. m. Wednesday until 12:38 a. m. today. His stint included a solid stretch of 8 hours and 23 minutes.

Another quorum call came at 9:50 a. m., bringing sleepy-eyed civil rights supporters to the Senate chamber from nearby cots and couches. For the most part they were fully dressed, although a few were without neckties.

They mustered a quorum in 31 minutes, and then Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.) took over the Southern speaking chore for the breakfast pull.

Serves Short Stint

Smathers served a relatively short stint until 6:45 a. m. His theme was that the civil rights bill is a possible vehicle for dictator ship. He cited figures to indicate increasing registration is providing a homegrown solution for Negro voting rights in Florida.

A quorum call after Smathers' speech kept things quiet for 33 minutes, and Sen. John Stennis (D-Miss.) took over at 7:18.

By that time some of the sen-

Old Records At Courthouse To Be Burned

Columbiana County's Records Commission has approved for destruction of or after May 5 thousands of old records at the Courthouse in Lisbon.

Many of them date from 1803 when the county was established and no longer have an administrative, legal or fiscal value to the county or its citizens, the commission said. There is no legal provision for keeping them.

Besides advertising, the commission must give notice to the state auditor's office and the Ohio Historical Society. It will also notify the Columbiana County Historical Society.

Each of the three agencies has the opportunity for 60 days to select any records deemed to be of continuing historical value.

Records to be destroyed are from three offices:

Clerk of Courts: records of notary commissions, 1803-1855; assignment trial notices, 1803-1850; cash receipts books, 1803-1850; bank statements, 1803-1850; jury report cards, 1803-1850; cash receipts, 1803-1850; check stubs, 1803-1850; cancelled checks, 1803-1850.

Probate court: blood tests for marriage licenses, up to Jan. 1, 1959; minister's report of marriages performed, up to Jan. 1, 1959; consent for marriage, up to Jan. 1, 1959.

Recorder: agents' licenses and certificates of compliance, up to Jan. 1, 1958; cash books dating from the 1800's down to 1933; original No. 1 deed index and transcribed No. 1 deed index.

The records commission includes Frank Wilson, chairman of the board of county commissioners; prosecuting Atty. G. William Brokaw, Auditor Kenneth Bell, Recorder Frances Morton and Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey. Mrs. Ruth Wining is commission secretary.

Broker Confesses Theft of $270,000

NEW YORK (AP) — A Wall Street broker with an expert knowledge of electronic business machines and a year for gambling and high living has confessed all to the district attorney.

"All," according to Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan's office, amounted to approximately $270,000, stolen over a period of eight years from Walston and Co., Inc., members of the New York Stock Exchange. But Frank B. Haderer, 50, an $18,000-a-year Walston vice president, can be charged with only $170,000 of the thefts because of the statute of limitations.

Hogan's office said the Walston firm discovered the thefts while

Two Top Dems 'Back Into' Race

Johnson, Symington
In Oregon Primary

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) are official candidates now for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The two presidential hopefuls backed into the race Wednesday with separate announcements they would not withdraw their names from the May 20 Oregon presidential primary. Both still avoided any direct statements that they are candidates.

Johnson said he was too involved in the Senate filibuster on civil rights to give any attention to outside political matters. But he said he has "no plans to act in any way on the Oregon ac-

This meant he would not file an affidavit with the Oregon secretary of state to take his name off the ballot. Oregon law requires that all nationally recognized candidates be named. They can withdraw only by filing a statement disavowing candidacy.

Johnson's announcement was interpreted as indicating he has not lost hope he can combine Southern and Western backing in a serious challenge for the nomination.

Johnson's Southern support has been shaken by his action in bringing the civil rights issue before the Senate. Some of his Dixie colleagues have sent word to him they don't think they can hold their state delegations for him if he eventually votes for a debate limitation to end the current Southern filibuster, which he may have to do.

Without strong Southern backing, Johnson may not be in a position to challenge Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), an announced candidate. Kennedy has been saying recently that Johnson is his biggest rival but that was before the civil rights controversy exploded.

Kennedy's name, put into the Oregon contest by the state secretary of state, will stay there along with those of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.).

South American Tour Concluded By President

Flies to Puerto Rico
For 3-Day Rest Prior To Returning Home

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—President Eisenhower flew north to ward home today after a triumphant four-nation South American tour marked by huge, enthusiastic crowds and a smattering of tiny anti-U.S. demonstrations.

The President flew to Buenos Aires in his trusty Columbine III after a 21-hour stay in Montevideo, capital of neighboring Uruguay. He held a brief last meeting at the Buenos Aires airport with Argentine President Arturo Frondizi, then took off in his Boeing 707 jet for an all-day flight to Puerto Rico and three days of rest before going on to Washington.

Calls For Refueling Stop

U.S. Air Force officials said the flight plan at the time of departure called for a refueling stop in Paramaribo, Surinam, after a flight of nearly six hours. That schedule would put the President in Puerto Rico late this afternoon (4:30 p. m. EST).

Eisenhower was smiling and in obvious good humor as he said goodbye to President Frondizi. They had a final 15-minute talk aboard the sleek jet just before it took off.

Just before leaving Uruguay, Eisenhower and President Benito Nardone issued a joint "Declaration of Montevideo" repudiating all types of antidemocratic actions. They pledged their adherence to the principle of nonintervention in the affairs of other American countries and agreed to use their efforts to increase economic, social and cultural cooperation.

President Boards Plane

Then the two presidents gave each other a hearty abrazo — the South American bearhug embrace — and Eisenhower boarded his plane, waving and grinning.

The cheers of millions along the way through Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Uruguay kept Eisenhower smiling and in high spirits from the minute he reached South America on his historic goodwill mission 10 days ago.

Shrugging off the only hostile display that amounted to anything, in Montevideo Wednesday, he told Uruguayan President Benito Nardone that the jeers of leftist students did not bother him a bit.

There were over 180 exhibits at the fair and all that were entered received recognition. The top 24

Leetonia Eyes Park As Fire Station Site

LEETONIA — A site for the proposed new fire station was discussed when Village Council met Wednesday night.

Fire Chief Eldon Holt Jr. inquired about the possibility of constructing the station in Wick Park between Walnut and Elm Sts. The approximate size of the building is 100 x 50 and will face Park St.

Residents near the park will be polled for their opinion on the proposed construction. The park was donated to the village by the Leetonia Iron and Coal Co., which is no longer in existence.

Residents will vote on the fire station bond issue in November. Clerk M. P. Burick reported to Council receipts of $127 in parking meter revenue, $338, sales tax; $1,000, gasoline excise tax; and $70 fines and licenses collected by Mayor Ralph B. Kennedy.

Councilmen at the meeting were Richard Carney, Chester Whitacre, Elby Morris, Dan Cullinan and Joseph Weikart, Solicitor Edward Greenamyer and Street Commissioner Richard Kleinknecht.

Efforts Renewed To Save Livestock

KIM, Colo. (AP)—Sub-zero cold bit into storm-weary eastern Colorado again today as Army bulldozers and ranchers renewed their campaign to avert heavy livestock losses.

Three task forces directed by a helicopter and by local guides churned through ocean-like waves of snow to open roads to rural homes and ranches. The most prolonged cold spell in years is feared to be taking a heavy toll of cattle and newborn calves.

Harsh winds that drifted snow six and eight feet high hampered the Army vehicles in their first missions Wednesday.

The 24 officers and men arrived here earlier this week from Ft. Carson, Colo., 200 miles away, in response to pleas from Las Animas County officials for help.

Col. Charles L. Heitman, Ft. Carson's acting commander, was due here today by helicopter.

Seven Prelates Named Cardinals by Pope John

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII today designated seven prelates of the Roman Catholic church to be cardinals. They included the first Negro, the first Japanese and the first Filipino.

FOP Donates Land For Juvenile Camp

EAST LIVERPOOL—Members of the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge and FOP Associate voted Wednesday night to donate a 28-acre tract of ground at Rock Camp for establishment of a juvenile work camp, but explained a number of legal questions remain to be cleared before the actual transfer of land can be made.

The tentative action was taken at the meeting after a discussion of the youth camp plan by its originator, Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin. Under his plan a camp would be established to serve the five counties that comprise the 12th Congressional District, Columbiana, Jefferson, Belmont, Harrison and Carroll.

The members of the lodges said one question that remains to be cleared concerns a clause in the deed under which the ground would revert to the FOP and FOPA if it ever ceased to be used for a juvenile camp. The land is located along Route 30 in Madison Township between Lisbon and East Liverpool.

ever elevated to the College of Cardinals. Their elevation will bring the membership of the church's highest body to a total of 85, the largest in history.

The others chosen by the Pope were two Italians, a Frenchman and a Dutch prelate.

The Negro to be elevated is Bishop Laurian Rugambwa of Butabwa, Tanganyika, in East Africa.

The Japanese is Archbishop Peter Tatsuo Doi of Tokyo. Archbishop Rufino J. Santos of Manila is the Filipino.

The others honored by the Pontiff are Archbishop Bernard Jan Alfrink of Utrecht, Holland; Archbishop Joseph Lefebvre of Beauvais, France, and the Most Rev. Luigi Traglia and the Most Rev. Antonio Bacci, both Italian members of the Vatican Curia.

They will be elevated to the purple at a pre-Easter consistory to be held on March 28.

It will be the third such consistory Pope John has called since he became supreme ruler of the church 16 months ago. Each time he has enlarged the college.

7 Inches Here Counted; Many Schools Closed

All Ohio Affected;
Highway Crews At Work 'Round Clock

Nine million Ohioans crept, skidded, plowed and shoveled today through the heaviest general snow of the winter.

Such major cities as Akron, Toledo and Youngstown had seven inches of snow on the ground by daybreak — and still more was swirling down.

Seven to eight inches of snow was measured in Salem this morning and it continued to mount.

Rural schools by the dozens in all sections of the state gave up early in the day and declared a holiday.

A number of Columbiana and Mahoning County schools closed this morning, although still others remained open.

Among those closed because of the snow were Mahoning Local, Beaver Local, Salineville, Fairfield-New Waterford, Knox, Goshen, Lisbon, Greenford, Sebring.

Salem, Leetonia, Columbiana and East Palestine public schools were in session but officials were considering the possibility of sending bus pupils home early.

The Salem Trades Classes were canceled tonight because of the weather.

State Highway patrolmen stopped some school busses this morning and instructed the drivers to take the pupils home because of hazardous road conditions.

Can't Keep Up With Snow

State and county road crews were experiencing difficulty in keeping up with the snow. Strong winds were closing some roads soon after snowplows had opened them. It was just a case of too many miles of roads to cover during a severe snowstorm.

"We can't keep up with it," one foreman said.

In Salem, service department crews, using two snowplows—one borrowed from Perry Township—tried to keep streets passable and intersections salted today.

Mayor Dean Cramer said that the Service Director James Feller would have all his men out at midnight to clean the downtown streets. Meanwhile, plows were going up and down principal streets to keep them open.

The Weather Bureau in Columbus reported previously not a single square foot of Ohio missed the onslaught of the storm which began late Wednesday afternoon in the south and swept northward across the state.

Traffic crawled—when it moved at all—in the metropolitan areas as highway crews pressed every available piece of scraping equipment into use and spread thousands of tons of salt and cinders.

The snowfall by dawn measured five to seven inches in Cleveland and Columbus and Dayton had five. Cincinnati had an official four inches, but it was reported deeper in some sections of the Queen City.

Cleveland was warned to prepare for nine to 10 inches by night. Prospects were that the storm will dwindle to flurries by afternoon or night. But their appeared no immediate chance of a thaw with temperatures scheduled to remain below the freezing mark.

In the Sandusky area, the drifted snow was so deep that chemicals couldn't bite their way down to the pavement and traffic on

2,350 Quake Victims Buried

Devastated Moroccan City Sealed Off

AGADIR, Morocco (AP) — Rescue team officials said today 2,350 victims of the Agadir earthquakes have been buried in mass graves and that whole areas of the city remain to be searched. As the figure was disclosed, Moroccan army troops sealed off the city. U.S. military teams and hundreds of French sailors deployed through the streets spraying rubble with disinfectant.

Crown Prince Moulay Hassan ordered "all living souls" to be evacuated from Agadir.

Moroccan government officials said they believed at least 5,000 persons were killed or injured when two massive earthquakes and a tidal wave wrecked the port city on the southern Moroccan coast Monday night.

An International Red Cross representative earlier had said he felt the figures would be 3,000 dead and 5,000 injured. But there was general agreement that no accurate count of the casualties would be possible.

Despite ceaseless rescue efforts since the quakes struck, some living were thought to be still trapped beneath the rubble of the shattered buildings.

The U.S. heavy cruiser Newport News arrived today with bulldozers and units of a U.S. Army Engineer battalion. They joined more than 1,600 sailors from a French naval squadron which arrived in the harbor Wednesday night after steaming at full speed from the Canary Islands.

In the fields outside the city shrouded bodies were thrown in mass graves and covered with quicklime.

A Roman Catholic priest said last rites over the European victims as surviving relatives stood alongside.

Rows of Moslems worked side by side, digging a long trench for 75 bodies awaiting burial. The hot weather and a lack of embalming facilities made haste necessary.

U.S. and French rescue planes roared overhead on mercy missions in and out of the French air base just outside the stricken city. The single runway was crowded with planes bringing in food, medicines and rescue equipment.

Train-Oil Truck Crash Under Probe

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) —

Squads of investigators tried today to find what caused the collision of the Santa Fe Chief No. 2 streamliner, a San Francisco to Chicago passenger train, and a two-trailer truck rig loaded with 7,000 gallons of crude oil.

It happened at 5:10 p.m. Tuesday at the marked Austin Hageman road crossing on quiet San Joaquin Valley flatlands seven miles northwest of Bakersfield.

Fourteen persons died and 72 were injured in the crash and fire. Of the 109 aboard—76 passengers and 33 crewmen—only 24 escape injury. Of the injured, some seriously and a few critically, 44 remained hospitalized today.

Trucker John Garrett, 48, of Bakersfield apparently tried to swerve his rig and leap clear at the last instant. But an explosion of flames incinerated him in a roadside ditch.

Train Engineer L. A. Snyder, 67, and Fireman Austin Braley, 43, both of Fresno, Calif., were at the controls and died on the instant the train hit the truck at a 45-degree angle. But apparently they, too, had seen what was coming. Kern County Coroner Stanley Newman said they were far back in the engine compartment.

"It is clear they were running away from the collision," he said.

Ronald Gilbert, 23, of Mannington, W. Va., was fined $25 and costs for no muffler and $10 and costs for driving on an expired temporary plate. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Glenn E. Dillard, 34, of Lisbon RD 2, forfeited a $25 bond for reckless operation. He was cited by village police.

Department of Liquor Control Has Blacklist for Offenders

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "Is this the thanks I get for losing a leg in the Army of the United States... I pay my own bills... I think it is a dirty trick." So wrote a northern Ohio veteran with a record of 24 arrests for intoxication after he had been placed on the Ohio Department of Liquor Control's blacklist.

The list contains the names of persons to whom bartenders are forbidden to sell intoxicating drinks.

The letter is but one of many received daily by C. E. Murphy, chief examiner of the department's permit section. Murphy's duties include determining whether an individual shall be placed on the blacklist.

Letters pour over the desk of the Cincinnati police officer from distraught wives, husbands and parents.

Every request that a person be black-listed is checked by either Murphy or an assistant. Personal interviews with a complaining wife sometimes result in both husband and wife being placed on the list, Murphy said, adding that the list contains the names of approximately 2,500 persons at all times.

Names are removed when investigation shows the action is warranted.

Murphy cites the case of a 21-year-old Mount Vernon girl placed on the list at her parents' request. Her name was removed later, only to be replaced within several weeks when she started drinking again.

About 10 per cent of persons black-listed are women, Murphy said.

"They usually straighten up in about three months and stay off the list," he pointed out.

The village of Jackson has more persons on the blacklist per capita than any other place in the state.

20 Deaths Attributed to Weather

Nation's East Jarred by One Of Winter's Worst Storms

By The Associated Press
Destructive ice and snow storms, which staggered broad sections of the South, border states and the Midwest, ripped in to the East today in one of winter's most violent weather attacks. The fast-moving and far-reaching storms—the worst in years in some areas—caused a score of deaths, widespread damage and hardship and inconvenienced millions.

The storm belt stretched from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast. Cold weather gripped most of the storm zone, below zero in north central regions, freezing in much of the South and East.

At least 20 deaths were attributed to the inclement weather. There were 6 each in Texas and Colorado, 3 in Kansas, 2 in Tennessee, and 1 each in Mississippi, Iowa and North Carolina.

Strong winds fanned the snowstorm into eastern sections, from the upper and mid Mississippi Valley southeastward to the Appalachians and eastward through West Virginia and Virginia to the Atlantic Coast. There was much blowing and drifting snow in the mid Mississippi and Ohio valleys. Heavy snow—up to 10 inches—was indicated in some areas from the Ohio Valley to the Atlantic Coast.

A belt of rain and drizzle extended from western West Virginia southward into southeastern Tennessee. Sleet and freezing rain pelted areas east of the Appalachians from the Carolinas to northeastern Alabama. Rain fell along the coast from northern Florida northward to North Carolina.

A sheath of ice and a blanket of snow covered southern areas from Virginia to Arkansas and East Texas. Snow measured up to 9 inches in southwest Virginia.

The worst ice storm in 25 years pounded northeast Alabama and northern Georgia. Sleet and snow glazed Arkansas highways and streets and snowfalls measured up to a half foot in Tennessee and Kentucky.

Damage to pine forest in south Arkansas was estimated at several million dollars. Forestry officials placed damage to woodlands in Louisiana alone at a million dollars.

National guardsmen were called for emergency duty in Calhoun, a city of about 7,000 in northwest Georgia, which was without power or telephone service. A state of emergency was declared in a residential area of Huntsville, Ala., where the mayor said it was impossible to maintain utility service. Nearly 2,000 residents of outlying sections of Gadsden, Ala., were forced to leave their homes after ice storms broke power lines supplying their houses.

Florida was out of the stormy weather picture, with clear skies and temperatures in the 60-70 plus degree range.

Eight inches of snow fell in Kansas City, making a covering of 13 inches on the ground. All of the city's schools and libraries were closed today.

A heavy ice storm hit Atlanta, virtually halting travel for a time. The Georgia Highway Patrol said there was no highway travel west, north or east of Atlanta, cutting off the state entirely by land from Tennessee, South Carolina and parts of Alabama.

PROGRAM IS PLANNED
A program on "Broiler Meals" will be presented at the meeting of the Butler Township Home Demonstration Group Tuesday from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. at the Ohio Edison Co. here.

Mrs. Lawrence Pemberton and Mrs. Albert Gamble are the leaders, according to Miss Julia Shank, county extension agent in home economics.

We're With You Quakers. Go!

It was a year ago this week that the Salem High School basketball team entered tournament competition so successfully, emerging second from the top at Columbus as state runners-up when the final championship game was played after all other district champions had been disposed of.

Tomorrow night the Salem Quakers, with a 16-2 record this season, begin tournament play at Youngstown in what could be their first step toward another title.

It's not going to be easy. The tournament trail is rough, as the locals well know. Each game must be won as if it were the last. In fact, to the loser, it is.

Coach John Cabas' Quaker aggregation this year has demonstrated itself as a highly capable ball club and good teamwork, sparked by stellar individual performance, can mean tournament success if the Quakers put their mind and effort to it.

As for the fans, we'll be there — 100 per cent, adding whatever inspirational help we can offer.

If you play like you did against that fine Columbus East team here earlier in the season, we'll see you in the state tournament. Good luck!

For Every Action a Reaction

The half-hundred-odd members of the U.S. House of Representatives on James R. Hoffa's list of legislators whose defeat is sought by the Teamsters Union are preparing their counter attack.

They have set up a national headquarters in Washington, hired a lawyer and adopted the lengthy organizational title — Committee to Re-elect Hoffa-Threatened Congressmen.

Their offense was to vote for the Landrum-Griffin labor bill last session. But 303 members of the House voted for the bill, as against only 56 who have been tagged for extinction by Hoffa. What's the difference between the many and the few.

The difference is a small matter of voting percentages. Hoffa's political exterminators have chosen 56 of the Landrum-Griffin adherents who won election by no more than 5 per cent, or who appear vulnerable to the Teamsters Union for some special reason.

Rep. William H. Ayres of Ohio's 14th district (Summit and Medina counties) is in the latter category. The Teamsters think they can push him out of office with the strength they can bring to bear in strongly unionized Akron.

The Teamsters campaign against Rep.

Ayres and the other congressmen could turn into the key battle in a decisive war. Hoffa tactics in the showdown on the Landrum-Griffin bill last year precipitated another key battle that he lost.

Despite his decision to bring dozens of Teamsters business agents to Washington to buttonhole members of Congress, the bill passed. It was a calculated rebuke to Hoffa, who had put his prestige on the line by blocking it.

He has put his prestige on the line again. Either he sends his half hundred U.S. representatives to limbo, as threatened, or he will be more than halfway to limbo, himself. He has done what John L. Lewis did when he promised to take out a labor leader's spite on Franklin D. Roosevelt in the presidential election of 1940 by throwing his support to Wendell Wilkie. When the votes were counted, Wilkie and Lewis had lost. But Lewis lost more than Wilkie.

When the votes are counted in 56 congressional districts next November, the principal loser might be James R. Hoffa, a man who wasn't running for office but for his political life.

Flying Junk Up Yonder

The Defense Department has cleared up the mystery of the mystery satellite. Its official explanation is that the object orbiting around the earth is the recovery capsule of a rocket launched last August.

The Defense Department cannot prove this. It is making an educated conjecture. In the circumstances, that is all anyone can expect.

It is like the Unidentified Flying Objects, which no one can explain satisfactorily but which the Air Force systematically processes when reports of new sightings come in, to show that its ability to rationalize is unimpaired by repeated challenges.

This will be the nature of everything found in the space outside the earth in decades to come. Man must rationalize what he cannot understand, because to do anything else is to admit that the elasticity of his imagination has been taxed beyond its capacity.

It has been so with the stars and the wind. Not understanding what they were, men had to explain them by conjecture, and in due course of time the conjecture was transformed into theory—and in some cases the theory ultimately was provable. At least it was probable until someone was able to prove it was unprovable.

There's going to be a weird assortment of flying junk in space as time passes and man moves in with the inevitable clutter that marks his presence. You can bet that every piece of it will be explainable, whether it's explainable or not.

THE HERRIN MASSACRE occurred in 1922. The 26 known dead certainly were strikebreakers, but they were members in good standing of a rival union of steam shovel workers and the dispute had become a jurisdictional rivalry.

Lewis thereafter blandly denied, as he legally well could, that he had ordered the massacre. He had merely authorized the resident Herrin miners to regard as strikebreakers a gang of shovelmen recruited in the barrel houses of West Madison St., Chicago, under authority of a charter from the American Federation of Labor.

Kindly Wait In the Outer Office

A Look At John L. Lewis

By Westbrook Pegler

When John L. Lewis retired from the United Mine Workers, The Associated Press carried a nauseous little tribute as though "time" had softened and sweetened this old man's terroristic insurrections in the Roosevelt reign which drove the American worker cowering from bricks and iron rods into compounds of the job monopoly.

Other elements of the free American press used the same tone and the same sentimental cant in bidding Lewis a sweet adieu.

However, nothing that has happened since the Herrin massacre in southern Illinois, touched off after a telegram arrived from Lewis, has palliated his conduct in that and many other terrors.

THE HERRIN MASSACRE occurred in 1922. The 26 known dead certainly were strikebreakers, but they were members in good standing of a rival union of steam shovel workers and the dispute had become a jurisdictional rivalry.

Lewis thereafter blandly denied, as he legally well could, that he had ordered the massacre. With some slight knowledge of the work at the Herrin mines. But always a charter in one union is legally as good as a charter in any other. The business of chartering paper unions to criminals enabling them to sell memberships and garner dues and to pull strikes and break strikes was well established as far back as the reign of Sam Gompers.

The Herrin slaughter was the most atrocious on American soil since Fort Pillow in the Civil War, but Lewis was out of the Illinois jurisdiction throughout the affair and the grand jury held the Southern Illinois Coal Co. absolutely at fault for "direct and indirect acts."

These included a pot shot said to have been fired at a miner by a tough, itinerant Kansas mine boss, C. K. McDowell, the superintendent.

McDowell was an old, confirmed enemy of the mine workers who had broken strikes in Kansas and, by his record, was commended for the mob at Herrin. He was killed in action fighting uproariously. He was unavailable therefore to attend the grand jury.

LEWIS INSISTED that the shovelmen's union had been suspended from the A.F. of L. as it could have been by the power of his own mine workers' rivalry for numerous jobs in overlapping areas. However, in later years, Lewis's own mass, the United Mine Workers, pulled out of the same A.F. of L. and, much worse, set up a rival union in the Committee of Industrial Organization, a mortal heresy under the chapter-heading of "dual unionism."

By the code invoked at Herrin against the shovelmen Lewis deserved death for that.

Shovelmen in the Herrin slaughter were dragged behind cars until they were smashed to bloody bags of skin and cloth. Six in one bunch were chained together and shot countless times from a distance of a yard. One group got the Cuban Ley de Fuego and were brought down as they ran for a barbed wire fence.

This, however, was not Lewis's monument.

HIS GREATEST FEAT was the terror in Michigan which established Walter Reuther's heritage, the United Auto Workers and, unmistakably, fixed the precedent of sabotage, mob assault and, as F. D. Roosevelt termed such conduct later, "mass insurrection."

In the Michigan revolution, Frank Murphy, the governor, cowered in his office, refusing to authorize the National Guard to clear out the saboteurs from the plants in Flint or to clear the streets in many centers.

When Lewis's organizers pulled the switches in the central power plant in Flint, the lights, the sterilizing apparatus, the X-rays and the passenger elevators in the hospitals went out of business for 24 hours before city officials could find the proper authorities of the Lewis insurrection to "negotiate" permission to close the switches.

LEWIS FOUNDED a reputation as a physical tough guy with one wild right poke in the snout. At the 1936 convention of the A. F. of L. in Atlantic City, William Hutcheson, the president of the Carpenters' Union, whose son has well maintained the family tradition as hereditary president, spontaneously called Lewis an ugly name. Lewis poked him and they went down in a roaring tangle of splintered chairs.

That was the basis of Lewis's renown as a thug doing his own work by hand. It has been a false and misleading reputation, for it was his only known fracas except a sneak kick at a photographer's camera in Washington years later.

EVEN DAVE BECK, of the Teamsters, and Phil Murray, a puling understudy for Lewis in the Mine Workers, could show little less personal pugnacity.

Beck, the Reuthers, James Carey and Will Green were vicarious warriors, spilling blood through the agency of their own mobs and the opposition.

Lewis always maintained that whatever their charter and their "standing" on the books, the Herrin shovelmen were up to illicit practice. Their chartered job was only to skin off top soil, exposing coal for the miners to dig. Lewis said these sordid fellows were scooping lignite, clearly outside their chartered jurisdiction.

Civil Rights Hypocrisy

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Extremists on Both Sides Beclouding the Issues

Resentment, hypocrisy, deep-seated antagonisms, political selfishness — all these are part of the background of what is being called a civil rights debate in the United States Senate.

Little is apparent of the feeling that disputes can better be resolved if a conciliatory spirit prevails. Instead, friction and bitterness are being engendered daily — indeed, it is actually promoted as a means of getting publicity.

The "sit down" demonstrations in the South, for instance, are regrettable evidences of the mistaken theory that progress in a controversy can be made by stirring up more and more hostility between the groups involved.

Even many of those citizens who not so long ago were crying out for "law and order" seem strangely silent when Negro and white demonstrators enter private business establishments and refuse to leave seats pre-empted by them in the restaurants until ousted forcibly.

Reports from the South are that many people who enter the stores and see the demonstrators are beginning to send unfriendly glances toward all Negroes they see. This is the way bad feeling is spread and violence provoked.

One wonders whether the instigators of the "sit down" stunts have taken into account the damage to race relations which has already been done by the demonstrations in the restaurants and lunch rooms.

THE DEBATE in the Senate is supposedly over voting rights. This is not the basic issue. For the South does recognize the right of a qualified citizen to vote. The controversy is over the method that shall be used to determine whether a voter is qualified.

The theory is advanced by Northern proponents of so-called civil rights legislation that the federal government shall police the registration of voters — hitherto predominantly a state function.

In the North as well as the South, literacy tests are required and in some states property must be owned as a qualification for voting.

The 15th Amendment to the Constitution says that the right of citizens to vote shall not be abridged because of "race or color."

This amendment was declared ratified in 1870 but the legislatures of states like California, Delaware and New Jersey rejected it. Even New York State, after first voting to ratify, then voted to rescind its ratification.

There is a moral question, too, as to whether the amendment was really ratified by the will of the people's elected representatives in three-fourths of the State Legislatures for in the South the legislatures were dominated by military forces sent there by the federal government after the war was over.

Ratification of amendments to the Constitution was compelled, in some instances, at the point of the bayonet.

EVEN DAVE BECK, of the Teamsters, and Phil Murray, a puling understudy for Lewis in the Mine Workers, could show little less personal pugnacity.

Beck, the Reuthers, James Carey and Will Green were vicarious warriors, spilling blood through the agency of their own mobs and the opposition.

THE SOUTH hasn't forgotten all this. Many of the wounds of those days were healed in part by the 1896 decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. It approved the many State Supreme Court decisions of the previous 25 years, including those in New York and Ohio, which upheld the principle of "separate but equal" facilities for education.

Now that the 1954 decision of the Supreme Court of the United States has completely upset the 1896 ruling, the South feels it has been mistreated all along the line beginning with the forced acceptance of the amendments to the Constitution by illegal legislatures in the years following the war between the States.

The Southern senators know they are outnumbered. But they wouldn't be true to the sentiments of their constituents if they didn't use every proper occasion to debate the issues.

Extremists on both sides are beclouding the issues. The controversy is being used to gain votes in the North for so-called champions of civil rights but hypocrisy is evident because protection for the citizen in his right to cross a picket line in a labor dispute is ignored.

There apparently will be no legislation on that phase of civil rights.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER? A significant statement was recently made in a new book written by W. D. Workman Jr., of Columbia, S.C., a veteran of World War II, whose newspaper and magazine writings have brought him civic, industrial, agricultural and military awards in addition to some in the field of journalism. His book is entitled "The Case for the South," and he writes:

"Short of utter amalgamation of the races, a thing utterly unacceptable to white Southerners, there is no solution to the problem of race relations: There can only be a continual adjustment and readjustment of relationships.

"The sense of race, no less than those of religion or of nationality, is so deeply embedded in man's nature — both conscious and unconscious — that it cannot be eradicated in the foreseeable future, if indeed it should be eradicated.

"Some persons, whose impulses can be regulated or whose incentives can be manipulated, may rise above or descend below, race consciousness but the masses are not likely ever to shed their recognition of race.

"Whatever may be the future of race relations in America, this much seems evident: That neither satisfaction nor peace can come from any coercive mingling of the white and black races against the will of either and that little hope can be entertained for any assimilation of one in the other.

"There remains, then, only the prospect of accommodating their differences in a pattern of peaceful co-existence based upon a friendly tolerance and helpful understanding.

"It is the recognition of racial distinctions, not their denial, which will lessen the tensions and enhance their adjustment."

Winter Sports

By TRUMAN TWILL

Until recently, "slalom" sounded like an oriental gesture to most of us dummies. Most of us never will know what it means except something about winter sports.

What we do know is that the infinite multiplication of leisure time — not ours, somebody else's — has underwritten the growth of a new sports industry in which words like "slalom" are as common as sprained ligaments.

Few of us will get beyond the bare knowledge that this sort of thing is going on. It will make no difference to us, because the ski run we are whizzing down is the Sunset Slope. But whenever we hear about the colorful people who go in heavy for winter sports, it takes us away back.

One of the commonest winter sports then, which was after pumps were passe, was thawing out pipes. This was done with hot bricks, soapstones, kerosene lanterns, teakettles filled with boiling water and those carbon filament bulbs that ushered in the age of electricity. The penalty was a "busted" pipe if the problem persisted. And new plaster.

The best known winter symptom was a frozen ear, finger, or toe. Good neighbors kept a sharp lookout for frozen ears. It was an unfriendly act not to tell a fellow human his ear had turned white and, if neglected, would turn black and fall off after a bout with gangrene. Frozen toes, being hidden, were more dangerous. Frozen fingers were common, and well run households kept a pan of snow on the back porch for rubbing on fingers to restore circulation and thaw out the member slowly, thus avoiding falling off at the first joint, or chilblain.

Everybody fooled with snowshoes, and some of the snowshoes were serious, because no one could be sure a winter would pass without an emergency that might call for snowshoes and even skis. People had to be resourceful for self-preservation and a farmer with sense enough to run his cattle up and down the lane to clear a track for the doctor was a medal winner in that era's version of "winter Olympics."

One thing practiced then under a heading of winter sports should give pause to young squirts who think gracious living was invented by Elvis Presley or the Darrin boy. The community-minded people went together and paid for the services of a horse, a driver and a snow plow that cleaned all sidewalks continuously when that was the first order of business. The motive was selfish. Everybody walked in winter, because the weather was too bitter for a horse to be out, and the first automobiles were kept on blocks in cold weather because antifreeze hadn't been invented.

Not so much sport as work was shoe-baking. Before there were all kinds of rubber footwear, the only way to keep out weather was by the use of heavy leather footwear doped with grease. When this gear became waterlogged, it had to be cooked dry on the fender of a fireplace, a stove, or sometimes an oven. But this had to be done in such a way that the shoes or boots would not lose shape and pliancy. They needed more pampering than a soufflé. Many is the happy hour we whiled away on shoe-baking. For all we know it may have been better than slaloming.

Teamster Indictment Poses Test for Taft-Hartley Law

By RAYMOND MOLEY

We shall now see whether James Hoffa and his merry men can again wriggle out of a legal net. Also, we shall see whether the Department of Justice really intends to enforce the provisions in the Taft-Hartley legislation dealing with labor unions' political activities.

Two locals of the Teamsters, together with six officials of the locals of the Teamsters are involved.

The individuals named in a 22-count indictment in St. Louis include Harold J. Gibbons, who has been prominently in the news because of his extensive appearances before the McClellan committee.

He is a vice president of the national union as well as an officer of the local which generally directs the operations of the Teamsters in St. Louis. He is also administrative assistant to Hoffa.

ANOTHER OFFICIAL named is Sidney Zagari, legislative counsel for the international organization.

The alleged beneficiaries of alleged contributions are Sens. Hennings and Morse, Reps. James Roosevelt, Henry Reuss of Wisconsin. These contributions were made for primaries in 1956.

Hennings, Morse, Roosevelt and Reuss have stated since the indictment that they presumed the contributions were from funds voluntarily subscribed by members of the unions.

The law allegedly violated is Sec. 610 of Title 18 of the United States Code. It was included in the Taft-Hartley legislation.

In substance, the law is an addition to legislation passed in 1907 forbidding contributions to campaigns for federal offices by corporations. The Taft-Hartley legislation put labor organizations under the same prohibition.

It should be pointed out that unions quite generally collect voluntary contributions from members for political purposes. But the provisions of the law prohibit contributions from the general funds of unions, which are made up of dues collected from all members.

In the 22-count indictment in St. Louis it is charged that the contributions "were derived substantially or entirely from the dues payments made by members" for the "general purposes" of the union.

THIS SECTION of the law was invoked against the United Automobile Workers for something that happened in the 1954 campaign. An indictment was secured which the federal district judge in Michigan dismissed.

When it was carried to the Supreme Court, the indictment was reinstated and Justice Frankfurter delivered a lengthy opinion concerning the history of the legislation and its importance.

He said: "What is involved here is the integrity of the electoral process and not less, the responsibility of the individual citizen for the successful functioning of that process. This case thus raises issues not less than basic to a democratic society."

However, when the case was tried before the same judge who had dismissed the indictment, there was an acquittal. The Justice Department then seemed to regard the statute as a dead letter.

The facts in the Teamsters case seem much more substantial than in the UAW case. In that instance, what was involved was payment by the union for a radio broadcast on which a candidate appeared. There was no direct monetary contribution involved. In the present case the alleged facts go straight to the heart of the matter.

The question is whether a union member's money, which he contributes as dues for the general purposes of the union, can be used to support political candidates whom he may or may not favor. In short, the alleged offense is the injustice of using money contributed for another purpose to support a candidate repugnant to the contributor and without his express permission.

Ohio Joins In All-Out Fight Against TB

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Health Department is joining other governmental and private health agencies in an attempt to virtually wipe out tuberculosis.

In 1958, the last year for which complete records are available, there were 550 tuberculosis deaths in Ohio, and 4,410 new cases reported. Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, director of the Health Department, said today that the disease still represents "quite a considerable problem" in Ohio.

Dwork said the nationwide anti-tuberculosis campaign was set up at a joint conference of the U.S. Public Health Service and National Tuberculosis Assn. in New York late last year. Drug treatments will be the weapon, he explained.

The director conceded that the disease might become resistant to some drugs unless the drug therapy knockout punch is delivered relatively swiftly, but added: "No body can predict for sure."

Calling it a "tremendous responsibility" will carry out the program name an advisory committee of private and public health officials to assist the department in advising local health officials, who actually will carry out the program in Ohio.

AN ORIGINAL PLAY, written by Mrs. George Hoffman, was presented at the regular meeting of the Travelers Club Tuesday afternoon at the Smucker House. Thirty-five members were present.

Mrs. Hoffman's play, which was read by Mrs. George Emeny, dealt with El Greco (1541-1614), the great Greek painter, who became the adopted son of Spain. Mrs. Hoffman's paper was based on former research done for skits at the Cleveland Art Museum.

"Paolo Veronese (1528-1588)" was the title of the article presented by Miss Helen French. She said Veronese was a pupil of Titian and one of the last of the famous Venetian school of painters.

Mrs. F. Troy Cope Jr. spoke on "Peter Bruegel (1525-1569)." She told that he was considered more of an illustrator and journalist rather than a painter in his day. He was a traveling artist and transferred the joy of peasant life to his canvases. He treated Biblical subjects in contemporary fashion, and had strong sense of design, composition and color.

The next meeting is March 15. JUST NINE Club members were entertained at the home of Mrs. Andrew Klein of S. Madison St. Tuesday evening.

Five hundred was the diversion with prizes going to Mrs. Gilbert Everhart, Mrs. Francis Helman, Mrs. George McFeely and Mrs. Purn Siding. Mrs. August DeCrown was a guest.

Lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting is April 6 at the home of Mrs. Henry Willard of S. Union Ave.

MRS. PAUL HOSTETTER of Calla Road entertained nine members of the Hickory Homemakers Club recently.

Fifty was in play, with honors going to Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Oscar Weingart and Mrs. Roy Capel.

Mrs. Ray Hostetter assisted the hostess. The March 24 meeting will be at the W. 5th St. home of Mrs. Herbert Paulin.

TWENTY-TWO members of Home Rebekah Lodge attended its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the IOOF Hall.

Members endorsed Mrs. Dorothea Stover of Finlay for state Assembly.

It was announced that Mrs. Patricia Post of Sebring was elected District 27 representative to the state assembly. Home Lodge is a member of District 27.

Mrs. Irving Overholt, Mrs. Walter Albough and Mrs. Ella Ferrall served lunch.

Hostesses for the March 15 meeting are Mrs. Richard Keller, Mrs. Edith Bailey and Mrs. Nelson Baunach.

DR. RALPH VANCE was guest speaker at the regular dinner meeting of the Salem Business and Professional Women's Club Monday eve. at the Smucker House.

The health and safety committee was in charge, with Mrs. Fred

Perkins as chairman, Mrs. Philip Bush, co-chairman, Mrs. Paul Stallsmith and Mrs. Miles Brooks. Places were set for 22 members, with a centerpiece of roses and lilies of the valley in a white glass bowl, and white candles at either end.

Dr. Vance, past chairman of the Columbiana county Mental Health League, spoke on "Mental Health—Diseases and Cures" and told of the aims and objectives of the Health League, and how the public can aid in this cause.

Miss Martha Park, vice president, conducted the meeting when Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Cleo Stirling were welcomed as new members.

Miss Jeannette Hoch read a letter of thanks from the Retarded Children's School for the club's donation to the school's Christmas party fund. She also told of the progress of the school and the retarded children's nursery. Members are invited to visit the classes.

The national security committee will be in charge of the March 28 meeting at 6 p.m. at the Smucker House. Mrs. Gilbert Edgerton is committee chairman.

There will be a board meeting March 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Smucker House.

THE NEWLY-FORMED Alliance Aquarism Society elected officers at its regular meeting Tuesday night at the Alliance YMCA.

They are: President, Milton Rubright of Alliance; vice president, Howard Manpenney of N. Benton; treasurer, Victor Moseley of Alliance; and secretary, Mrs. Howard Manpenney of North Benton.

The meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month at the YMCA. Anyone interested in keeping, studying, breeding and exhibiting aquarism fish and aquatic life is invited to attend the meetings.

Mrs. Manpenney served refreshments to the 12 members present. The next meeting is 8 p.m. April 5.

Reilly PTA Backs Brownie Scout Troop

Members of the Reilly School Parent-Teacher Association voted to sponsor a Brownie Troop when they met Monday evening at the school.

Vice president, Mruce Frederick conducted the meeting with 60 in attendance. Mrs. Richard Heron gave the secretary-treasurer's report.

Chester Brautigan was named chairman of a committee to investigate a teacher's scholarship fund. He will be assisted by Kenneth Pelley, Mrs. Raymond Coppock and Richard Karlis.

Mrs. Kenneth Pelley reported on the school fair to be held April 29. The roving attendance flag went to the third grade. A subscription to the parent-teacher magazine was awarded Mrs. Kenneth Sebrell.

Supt. Paul Smith was guest speaker and discussed the school curriculum.

Third grade mothers serving refreshments were Mrs. David Kachner, Mrs. William Mowry, Mrs. Martin Whitman, Mrs. Dan Balan and Mrs. Pelley.

The next meeting is March 28.

Columbiana County Tractor

A talk and movies of the 1960 farm implements highlighted the Monday night meeting of the Columbiana County Tractor 4-H Club held at the Gause and Ritchie Farm Supply Co. at Hanoverton.

Twenty-five members and the two advisors, Charles Gause and Walter Coie, were present.

Robert Blaire of the International Harvester Co. spoke and showed movies of the new machines for 1960. Ivan Smith pointed out the extra qualities of the new balers.

The club will meet Monday at the Gause and Ritchie Farm Supply Co.

100 Attend Merrymates Dinner Dance

More than 100 members of the Merrymates Club of St. Paul Catholic Church enjoyed the sweetheart dinner-dance Saturday night at the Lape Hotel.

The sweetheart theme was carried out in the red and white decorations of the dining hall. The tables were laid with white cloths and centerpieces of milk glass bowls filled with red apples, and flanked by red tapers. The favors were salad tongs for the women and ash trays for the men.

Hearts inscribed with the names of favorite sweethearts were distributed to the members, with the right pairs matched for the grand march.

The Rev. Fr. J. Richard Gaffney welcomed three new couples, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ospek, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Valentino and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kinnavy.

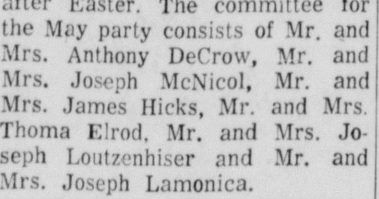

Dancing was to the music of Frank Uselson and the Gaytones. During the intermission, a community sing was held.

Prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. John Bongiovanni, Mr. and Mrs. Ospek, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gittleman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whinnery, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flanagan, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Radler and Dr. and Mrs. Leo Mundy.

The evening's activities were arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kuniewicz, Mr. and Mrs. whinnery, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Martinelli, Mr. and Mrs. John Schott, Mr. and Mrs. Gittleman and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Less.

There will be no parties until after Easter. The committee for the May party consists of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DeCrown, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McNicol, Mr. and Mrs. James Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Thoma Elrod, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loutzenhiser and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lamonica.

Schwartz's

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: What's the matter with the men in this world? I'm married to an old geezer whose eyes practically fall out of his head when a young girl passes. I can't keep a maid in the house because he got smart with every girl who worked for us. We've had to move twice because he became too friendly with women neighbors.

I used to think it was just him but now I've decided all men are this way. Last week I had to see a lawyer about property problems. He made a pass at me. When I told him off he said I was "imagining things." Even the delivery boys and the electrician in this building have made improper advances.

I'm very good-looking for my age but I never give anyone encouragement.

Don't tell me to see a doctor. I don't trust doctors either. I've been to two in the past year and they both propositioned me. —MAN HATER.

Dear Man Hater: Go to a woman doctor (head type) and get the help you need. You've got a one-track mind—and the track is a little muddy.

Mercenary-Minded

Dear Ann: I've been going with a fellow for five years. There are many good reasons why we can't marry for awhile but I won't go into them here.

We exchange presents at Christmas and on birthdays. I'd say he spends between $20 and $30 on me. For the last three years I've asked him what he would like and he says, "Give me the money and I'll buy what I want." So, I've been giving him $25 in cash every Christmas and again on his birthday.

So far I've never known him to buy anything with the money. I think he just saves it. His birthday is coming up again next month. What shall I do?—GWEN.

Dear Gwen: Don't ask questions and you won't get answers. Buy him what you think he'd like and don't let him make a commercial event out of the occasions which should have sentiment.

There's A Difference

Dear Ann: Your recent advice entitled, "Don't be a pal to your son," hit us at a very bad time.

I'm the executive director of a well-known national organization. Your advice appeared on the opening day of our national drive to encourage a better relationship between fathers and sons. The slogan for our campaign is "Pals Forever." Needless to say, you've unwittingly dealt us a sharp blow.

I'm sure you'll agree a father can be a pal as well as a good disciplinarian. We are trying to encourage fathers to spend more time with their sons. The modern dad seems to be "too busy."

Will you please help us by pointing out the difference between being a companion and letting a boy walk all over his dad? Thank you. NO NAME PLEASE.

Dear No Name: Unfortunately this is a matter of semantics. If I had been asked for a slogan I would have suggested "Friends Forever." The word pal suggests a "buddy-buddy" tieup which puts pa right down there at the 11-year-old level.

I'm all for fathers' spending time with their sons and repeatedly have said so in this space, but it should be at a good level and not a palsy-walsy arrangement.

The dad who tries to be a "chum" is like the boss who dances and drinks all evening with his secretary at the office party then expects her to say "Yes Sir" on Monday morning.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Board Okays Appropriation

$479,736 to Operate Schools In Lisbon

LISBON — The annual appropriation for 1960 was set at $479,736 when the Lisbon Village Board of Education met Wednesday afternoon.

A breakdown shows — personal service, $294,500; coordinate activities, $5,000; auxiliary agencies, $9,500; operation of school plants, $24,000; maintenance, $3,400; special service, $1,300; supplies, $32,000; material for maintenance $4300; equipment replacement $3,700; contract and open order service $24,700; capital outlay $6,400; and unanticipated emergencies $2,781.

Also earmarked is $49,696 for bond retirement fund and $24,900 for cafeteria fund, making a total of $554,332.

The board purchased a new sewing machine for the home economics classes at a cost of $265 and authorized the purchase of a wet pick-up vacuum speed dryer for the floors for $332.45.

It also authorized the use of home economics class room for an adult sewing class. The cost to each person registered will be $11 for the 10-week course, which will be taught by Miss Elizabeth Hinman, home economics teacher.

It was reported that Daily Vacation Bible School will be held this year at the Lincoln School June 13-24. The board places the school at the disposal of the churches free of charge.

A report was read on the receipts for the last three basketball games held in Lisbon as follows: Minerva, $196.33; Poland, $172.53; and Leetonia, $123.08.

Florida Communities Damaged by Twister

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—A tornado struck the small central Florida communities of Groveland and Apopka today. Damage was widespread, and at least six persons were hospitalized.

The twister struck before daylight at Groveland 20 miles west of here, then jumped to Apopka, about 20 miles to the northeast. Four Apopka Negroes were hospitalized. They were listed as Willie Easterling, Frank Maker, James Sistrunk, and Ivis Shy.

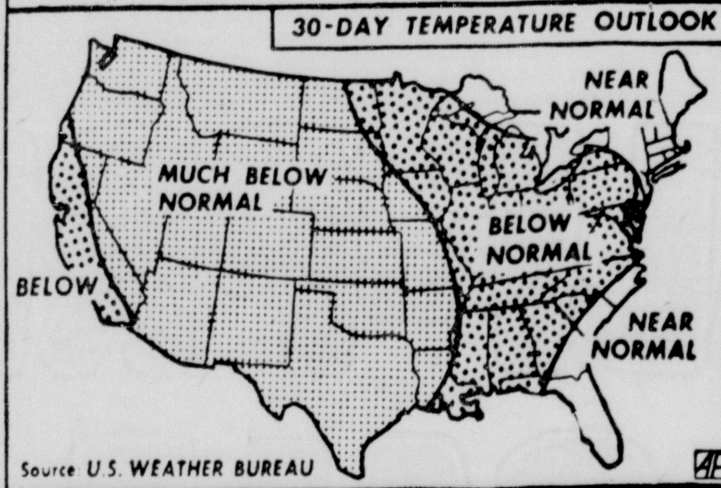

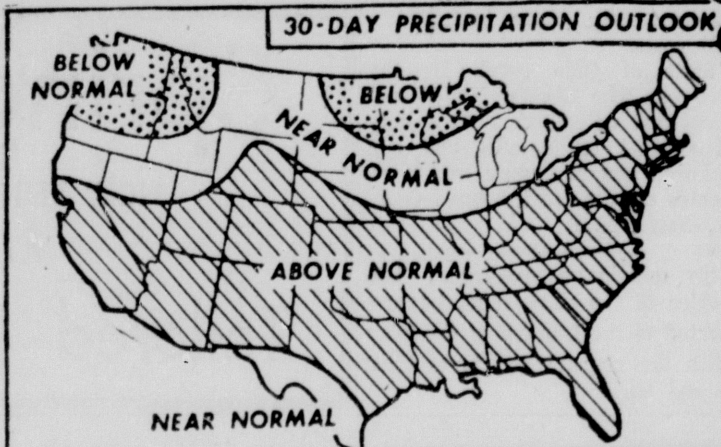

One house was demolished at Apopka, and roofs or walls were blown from others. Several persons there suffered minor injuries including cuts from flying glass. Many windows were broken.

Trees and power poles were down in both communities.

At Groveland Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Peddy were hurt when their trailer was overturned and demolished.

2ND YOUNGEST CARDINAL
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Bishop Laurian Rugambwa of Rutabo, Tanganyika, will be the second youngest member of the College of Cardinals when he is elected to the purple this month.

Bishop Rugambwa, the first native African prelate named to be a cardinal, will be 48 on July 14. The youngest cardinal is Bishop Julius Dopfner of Berlin, who will be 47 on Aug. 26. He became a cardinal in December 1958.

Damascus Ruritans Mark Farmers Night

Farmers Night was observed at a meeting of the Damascus Ruritan Club Wednesday night in the Damascus Methodist Church. Sixty seven members and guests were in attendance.

Among the guests were Fred Puttkamer of Greenford, Ruritan District governor; William Eshelman, lieutenant governor; and John Rudibach, Zone 1 governor. Routine committee reports were heard, and the club planned a fish fry for April 29 at Goshen High School auditorium.

James Mellinger of Leetonia, representative of Central Ohio Breeding Association, gave an informative talk and showed slides on the operation of COBA headquarters in Columbus. Mr. Mellinger, who has been field supervisor, serving several northeastern Ohio counties, has been appointed head of sales and Service of COBA, and he will move to Columbus in the near future.

Robert Wiley, COBA technician of Mahoning County, assisted Mr. Mellinger in presenting the program.

Elderly Jaywalkers Give Police Bad Time

CLEVELAND (AP) — Elderly jaywalkers who refuse to admit they're elderly are all but ruining Police Chief Frank W. Story's anti-jaywalking campaign.

A key step in the campaign is to drive all elderly jaywalkers home and warn their relatives of the high rate of accidents among older persons as a result of jaywalking.

"We cannot force a person into the car, if he does not want to go," Chief Story complained.

Retorts from the "older citizens" indicate policemen have tackled a bigger problem than they expected.

"Would you please mind your own business," said one jaywalker defiantly.

"Why don't you go out and arrest robbers and rapists and let us alone," said another.

"I've lived for over 70 years without any help and I don't need it now," a third declared.

However, Chief Story said officers apparently are getting some good results. Hundreds of tickets have been issued, he said.

Story said sixteen of the 23 persons killed in city traffic this year were pedestrians, the majority of them elderly.

wives of the Salona Supply Co. of Salem.

FAMILY OF 5 ASPHYXIATED
DANVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A family of five was found dead in their gas furnace-filled home in nearby Georgetown Wednesday night and police said they apparently were asphyxiated.

The dead were Ronald Pearson, 29; his wife, Shirley, 26, and their children: Bonnie Sue, 7, Ronald Jr., 4, and Sherry, 2. They last were seen alive Monday night.

NON-FICTION

"Shout Treason: The Trial of Aaron Burr" by Francis Beirne. Accused of treason by President Jefferson, Aaron Burr was tried before John Marshall in 1807. The trial was important for another reason—Marshall and Jefferson were political enemies—and it was a dramatic battle between the two courtroom where Burr was finally acquitted.

"The Outlaws of Parnassus" by Margaret Kennedy. An experienced novelist discusses the art of storytelling, and cites examples from famous writers of all times to support her belief that not every writer can spin a tale successfully.

"The Triumph of Surgery" by Jurgens Thorwald. This is a lively and authoritative account of the men who brought surgery into its present eminence.

"Nehru, Ten Years of Power" by Vincent Sheean. Prime Minister Nehru's policies and actions toward India, Kashmir, the Communists, Tibet, Pakistan, and other areas are discussed and analyzed with a study of the leader's influence on world peace.

"Fool's Gold" by Jed Jordan as told to M. M. Marberry. A saloon owner and sometime gambler of Nome tells what Alaska was really like in gold rush days, with puncturing truth for some tall tales but racy anecdotes of real people and real events.

"For a Flower Album" by Colette. Colette, the famous French novelist has assembled here beautiful thoughts inspired by flowers and ranging over many years.

"Undercover Teacher" by George N. Allen. The author took a job in the New York and Brooklyn schools to find out what really goes on there. His discoveries were horrifying and should be a matter of concern to parents and educators.

"Political Man" by Seymour Lipset. A study of American political ideas, the two party system as a "class division", the function of labor unions in politics, the present day emphasis upon moderation, etc.

"Africa, World of New Men" by John Considine. Modern Africa is the setting for these stories of bold and courageous men who, inspired with plans for the betterment of their people, acted decisively to bring about their dreams.

"Good Housekeeping's Complete Book of Needlecraft" by Vera Guild. Covers sewing, knitting, embroidery, crocheting, dressmaking, weaving, following patterns, repairing cloths, etc.

The expression "Seven Seas" comes from the early belief that there were seven seas surrounding the seven great land masses of the earth.

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. Norman Miller

Relatives here have been notified that Mrs. Alice Mundy Miller died Wednesday at her home in Bradenton, Fla.

Born in Salem Dec. 29, 1882, she was a daughter of the late William and Mathilda Stockwell Mundy. She spent her early life in Salem, and after her marriage to Norman Miller, she lived in Cleveland and Ashland before moving to Bradenton 10 years ago. Her husband died in October of 1958.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. William Walpert of RD 5, Salem; a brother, Charles Mundy of Riverside Calif.; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral service and burial will be in Florida.

Johnson

ators on quorum call apparently were getting hardened to it. At any rate, their average appearance was a bit more spruce and alert than on earlier roundups.

During part of Long's talk, Johnson could be observed in the chamber with the rough draft beginnings of a compromise bill. He mixed earnest conversation with Democratic civil rights supporters.

Johnson Undertakes Drive

Some of them reported after-ward Johnson had undertaken a drive to find a measure which can win the necessary two-thirds vote of the Senate to limit debate and end the filibuster should that step be necessary.

These senators said Johnson emphasized he was exploring the prospects for bringing out a substitute measure centered around provisions for court-appointed referees to help guard Negro voting rights, and fixing penalties for hate bombings of schools and churches.

Inviting Democratic suggestions, Johnson was looking into a proposal that would drop some other provisions of the administration program introduced by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader.

Dirksen meanwhile undertook separate explorations which carried over into a scheduled mid-day meeting of all 35 Republicans today.

One question likely to be discussed is whether to try to get a two-thirds Senate vote to halt the marathon legislative battle and, if so, when.

Both leaders were reportedly aware of the difficulty of getting such a vote to pass the seven-point Dirksen bill now pending in the Senate.

They are exploring the possibilities of eliminating some of the provisions which have brought bitter Southern opposition. No one expects the Southerners to agree to any civil rights measure, but if they can win enough concessions they might give up their all-out battle. Otherwise, their tactics might alienate other senators favoring a moderate bill and provide enough votes to limit debate.

Cardinals

underlining his determination to bolster the high senate of the church to meet modern problems and to reflect the great growth of the church in recent years.

Previously the College of Cardinals had been limited to 70 members for more than 350 years.

In making his latest cardinal selections, Pope John continued a practice he set earlier of elevating comparatively younger church officials to the college. Bishop Rugambwa is 47, and Archbishop Santos is 51. Archbishop Alfrink is 59, Archbishop Doi and Lefebvre both 67, and the Most Revs. Traglia and Bacci both 64.

The college now has 31 Italians and 47 prelates from other countries. After the new consistory it will have 33 Italians and 52 non-Italians.

Naming of a cardinal for the Philippines, whose population is almost solidly Catholic, and of the first native Negro cardinal in Africa, where the church has expanded enormously in recent years, did not come as a surprise.

But the naming of a Japanese cardinal was a surprise and injected new interest in the colorful ceremonies that will see the elevation of the princes of the church. Japan's Catholic population is small, and Tokyo, of which the new cardinal is archbishop, has only about 37,000 Catholics.

The nomination of a Japanese cardinal was considered by Vatican sources to indicate the importance that Pope John attaches to the church in the Far East.

James R. Paisley, 65, of 13700 Fairhill Road, Cleveland, died Wednesday at his home. He had been ill one year.

He was vice president and general manager of the Wean Equipment Co., Cleveland. Born in Washingtonville Dec. 8, 1894, he was a son of John and Harriet Paisley.

Besides his wife, Katherine V. Paisley, he is survived by a son, James R. Jr. of Boston; a brother, Frank of Alliance; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Orr of Youngstown and Mrs. Ralph E. Warner of Salem and four grandchildren. A brother, Clifford R. Paisley of Youngstown, preceded him in death.

Funeral service was to have been at 1:30 p.m. today at the Fairhill Home of the Millard Son and Raper Co., Cleveland, with the Rev. George D. Keister of Holy Trinity Church officiating.

Burial will be in Pittsburgh Friday. The family requests that material tributes take the form of contributions to Holy Trinity Church, Salem, or St. Luke's Hospital, Cleveland.

Mrs. Getz Funeral

Funeral service for Mrs. Mary Getz, 96, who died suddenly Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Cobedesh of 695 Washington Ave., will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Arbaugh-Pearce Funeral Home. The Rev. Harold Deitch will officiate. Burial will be in Hope Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening.

Born in Leeds, England, Dec. 18, 1863, she was a daughter of John and Martha Brown Wells. Her first husband, Wilson P. S. Garwood, died in 1900. She later married Jesse Getz, who died in 1938.

Besides Mrs. Cobedesh, she is survived by a son, Wilson Garwood of Boardman; three daughters, Mrs. Ferris Lightwood of Hendersonville, N.C.; Mrs. Paul Mangle of Canton and Mrs. Carl Hull of Salem; two stepsons, Perry Getz of Ft. Wayne, Ind.; and Ralph Getz of Albuquerque, N. Mex.; seven grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; and a sister Mrs. Fred Weikart of Washingtonville.

She lived in Washingtonville and Salem all her life and was a member of the First Christian Church here.

Mrs. Grover Chisler

Mrs. Joe Ella Chisler, 73, died suddenly Wednesday at 1:30 a.m. in Sierra Madre, Calif.

Her husband, Grover Chisler, preceded her in death in 1937. Formerly of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Chisler was a resident of Salem from 1938 to 1947 and was a member of the Friendship Class of the Presbyterian Church here.

She is survived by two sons, William E. Chisler of Minneapolis, Minn.; and Robert R. Chisler of Pasadena, Calif.; five grandchildren; a niece, Miss Hazel Linn, and a grand nephew, R. David Linn, both of Salem.

Funeral service will be Friday at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Sierra Madre.

Mrs. Minnie Baughman

Mrs. Minnie Baughman, 89, of 1171 E. State St., died at 1 a.m. today in the Salem Central Clinic, where she was admitted Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Stark Memorial.

Earl Hoffman

LEETONIA — Funeral Services were held Feb. 20, for Earl Hoffman, 74, who died Feb. 16 in the Altoona, Pa., Veterans Hospital following four-month illness.

Born in Leetonia Feb. 20, 1886, the son of Joseph and Mary Nichols Hoffman. He was a veteran of World War I, 16th Inf., First Division, and lived in Leetonia until entering the Veteran's Home in Altoona 30 years ago.

Survivors include one brother Raymond Hoffman of Detroit and several nieces and nephews. Burial was made in Carson Valley Cemetery in Altoona, Pa.

in amounts from $2,000 to $3,000 a month.

Altered IBM Cards He said he would go to the office after hours or on Sunday, and would alter IBM cards recording the firm's interest on money advanced to clients for stock purchases on margin, fixing them to show a smaller amount of interest than they should.

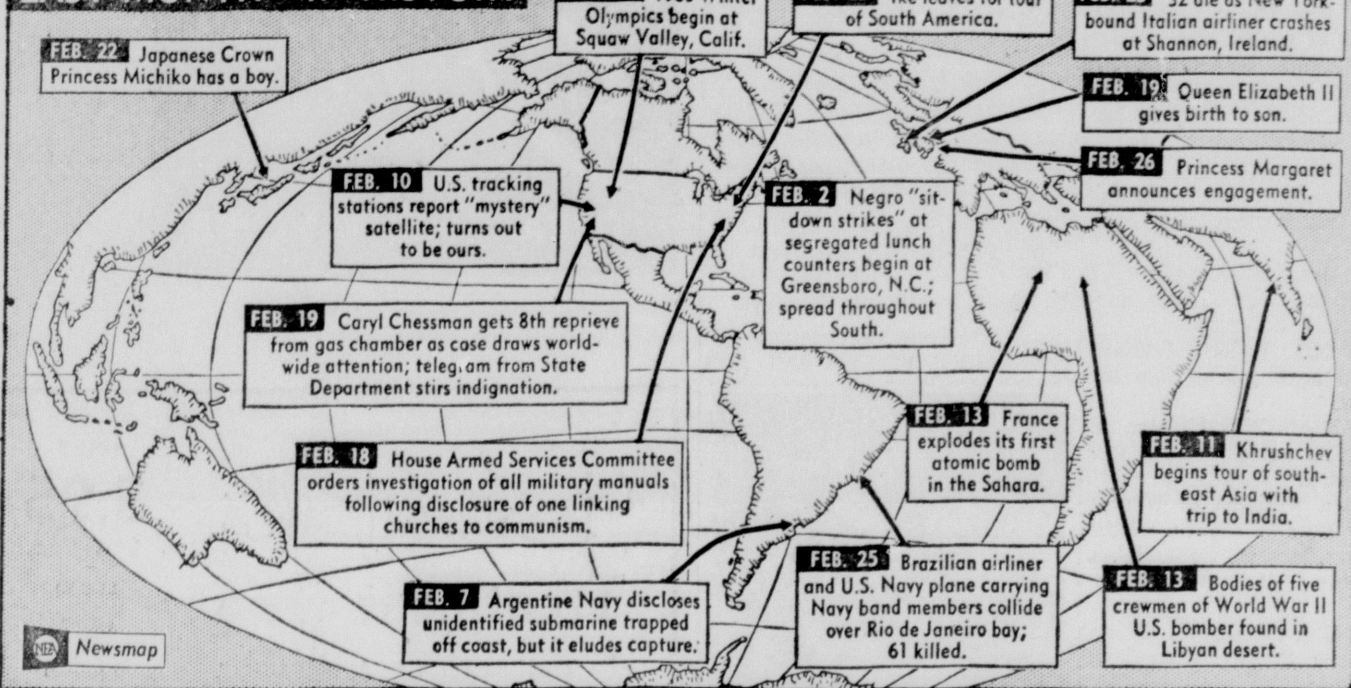

Then he would punch the amount of the difference on other IBM cards showing the accounts of himself and his wife for purchase of stocks.

Their personal accounts would then be used to buy stock and sell it for cash.

And the cash, the district attorney's office said, went mainly for trips to the gaming tables in Las Vegas and visits to New York night clubs.

The Walston firm has offices in 61 cities. Haderer, authorities said, has paid back a small amount of the stolen funds.

Action Delayed on Request For Stark Investigation Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Emergency Board delayed until Friday action on a request for another $25,000 to continue an investigation into vice and gambling in Stark County.

The board decided today against immediate action on a motion by Rep. G. D. Tablack (D-Mahoning), chairman of the House Finance Committee. Others on the 5-member board agreed when it appeared approval of the additional money might fail because of the absence of Sen. Fred Harter (D-Summit), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. Four favorable votes are needed to approve the request for additional money by Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy.

Tablack indicated that he might disapprove the request unless he could be convinced that additional money was needed.

Board members said Harter was expected for Friday's meeting. The attorney general previously received $50,000 for his investigations. His office said that money has been exhausted. A special Stark County Grand Jury was convened in January for the investigation at the request of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. Actual work on the investigation got under way last fall.

Tablack recalled he gave reluctant approval for the second $25,000. "I said unless something good was accomplished, I was not going to sit idly by and see taxpayer's money squandered," Tablack said.

"Most of us feel by reading the newspapers that there was a breakdown in law enforcement. But when they broadened their investigation by going into Tuscarawas County, I think they went far afield. There are responsible elected officials in the various communities."

"Unless they show me, there are going to be impeachment proceedings against those authorities, I am against the establishment of a Gestapo in Ohio."

Assistant Atty. Gen. Deforest Mellon said five indictments recently obtained in Tuscarawas County stemmed from the Stark County inquiry.

He said the special grand jury meeting in Canton has not finished its investigation and that a report giving details should not be expected because police work must be secretive.

"We are making progress in Canton," Mellon said. "When you warn people they are under investigation, they run for cover. I think the only way to keep a secret is to keep it yourself. The best way to make it known is to tell another."

Clinton V. Oster, deputy finance director, said McElroy and DiSalle had conferred about the investigation's progress. "They are agreed on the need for the additional money," Oster said.

fired by police at one group of demonstrators brought tears to Eisenhower's eyes, and spray from disciplinary fire hoses blew across the path of his open car, but he was not ruffled.

The President coughed slightly for a moment. He sat down in his bubbletop car, wiped his eyes and within a minute jumped to his feet, again waving greetings to the enthusiastic crowds — estimated at 400,000 — who drowned out the two small groups of hecklers.

Reports No Injury The President's doctor, Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, examined Eisenhower's eyes after the tear gas episode and reported no injury.

After his speech to the Uruguay Congress, Eisenhower's car took an unannounced detour to avoid the areas where trouble had erupted.

U.S. Secret Service agents, who had their fingers crossed when the President left Washington Feb. 22 on his 15,500-mile trip, breathed a sigh of relief that the tour went off without any major trouble.

But everywhere the President brought out the biggest crowds that South America has ever seen, and the roars of "Welcome Ike" drowned out the few shrill cries against the United States.

And everywhere he sounded the same theme—the friendship of the United States for her neighbors. Eisenhower made no specific commitments of additional financial help, but he pledged to work with the hard-pressed Latin American countries to raise living standards in the Americas.

He stressed the traditional United States policy of noninterference in the internal affairs of other countries. In an implied warning to the Soviet Union, he promised to defend the right of the Latin Americans to choose their own governments without outside interference.

Unless they show me, there are going to be impeachment proceedings against those authorities, I am against the establishment of a Gestapo in Ohio.

Beaver Local Senior In Wilmington Event

ROGERS — Miss Janet Smith, a senior at Beaver Local High School, left today for Wilmington, where she will participate in the Wilmington College 13th annual international Music Festival Friday and Saturday.

The only girl selected from Columbiana County, she will perform in both the choir and band.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Smith of RD 3, Lisbon.

Matter of Fact

At birth about 20 opossums weigh the same as a penny. They are as large as the end of your little finger. But big animals from little opossums grow. Although the bay weights only 1-2,300 of a pound at birth, papa and mama weigh three to seven pounds.

So They Say

Oozing confidence, optimism and the cowboy spirit, Texas men are naturally more individually masculine. This makes it easier for women to be feminine, which they obviously are.

Negro Students Will Shun Alabama Classes In Protest

By The Associated Press
More than 1,000 Negro students planned to stay away from classes at Alabama State College in Montgomery today in mass protest against expelling nine students for taking part in recent anti-segregation demonstrations.

The plan sent tensions rising in Montgomery, birthplace of the Confederacy, and scene of sit-downs and violence on the streets. A boycott of variety stores loomed in Tampa, Fla., and a Negro minister at Nashville, Tenn., was contemplating an order either to leave Vanderbilt University Divinity School or be dropped from its rolls.

The expulsions and a number of arrests indicated authorities are taking a firm stand in the face of the massive sit-in lunch counter demonstrations spreading across the South as part of a Negro drive for equal rights at eating facilities.

Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, president of the pro-integration Montgomery Improvement Assn., told the students Wednesday night the expulsion order was "one of the greatest blunders in the history of education in Alabama."

But Gov. John Patterson said the expulsion order was necessary "to prevent bloodshed in this city."

"If we ever bow to the threat of a mob," the governor said, "we are on our way out and they'll get more arrogant every day."

The state board of education ordered the nine students expelled effective Friday, last day of the current quarter. Twenty additional students were placed on probation.

In Florida 76 members of a youth council of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People staged two sitdown demonstrations at Tampa. One arrest was reported. The president of the state NAACP said if the demonstrations are not effective a boycott of the stores will be the next thing.

Demonstrations also occurred in St. Petersburg, Sarasota and Daytona Beach. The Negroes were refused service at all the lunch counters visited. In Tallahassee 11 Negroes were scheduled to be arraigned on charges of disturbing the peace in connection with a sit-down demonstration at a variety store lunch counter Feb. 20.

At Nashville, the Rev. James Morris Lawson, a 31-year-old Methodist minister, was ordered by Vanderbilt University either to leave its divinity school or be dropped from the rolls. Lawson has been identified as an organizer of sitdown protests.

such key routes as Ohio 2 and Ohio 6 was barely moving.

Because of the heavy drifting in the area, caused by 20-30 m.p.h. winds, Fremont area schools closed.

Drifting Is Common

Drifting also was common in the northeast with drifts to two feet deep on Geauga County roads. Five to seven inches of snow was the general rule in the northeastern sector.

Hazardous road conditions brought pleas from safety officials all over the state for a curb on unnecessary travel.

In many areas, the new snowfall was on top of three or four inches of old snow and ice.

Turnpike Still Open

Maximum speed on the Ohio Turnpike was reduced to 40 miles an hour. In each of the toll road's eight maintenance areas there were eight trucks plowing snow.

Turnpike headquarters reported there were a few minor skidding accidents this morning, but that traffic was moving all along the route.

On the worst day of the season the Highway Department's daily report on road conditions was probably the shortest of the season:

"Primaries and secondaries snow-covered and slippery. Weather—Snowing, windy and drifting. Ohio Turnpike—Snow-covered."

Prosecutor Calls Finch Testimony Lie

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A prosecutor says Dr. R. Bernard Finch's "whole soap opera was a lie."

And the society surgeon's mistress and co-defendant, Carole Tregoff, the prosecutor said, is a "latter-day Lady Macbeth" who was the "aggressor and instigator" in the slaying of the doctor's wife.

Finch, 42, and Miss Tregoff, 23, have been on trial since Dec. 8, charged with conspiracy and murder in the shooting of Barbara Jean Finch, 36, last July 18. The prosecution continues its final summation today, and the case may go to the jury Friday.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Fred N. Whichello—almost like a father confessor in his cross-examination of Finch during testimony—tore into the doctor Wednesday like a bristling Marine sergeant.

Whichello told the jury that the doctor is "a man without character and a man without principles" who has told "a self-serving piece of fiction in denying he killed his wife."

Finch maintains a gun went off accidentally while he and his wife were struggling, but Whichello rejects this as an "obvious absurdity."

Whichello began his denunciation of the doctor's story after the defense completed its three-day summation. Defense Attorney Grant B. Cooper argued that Mrs. Finch concocted stories about being beaten by her husband and spread them among her friends to increase her financial take in a divorce suit she had pending.

PROMOTION BADGES and achievement awards were presented to about a score of Cub Scouts at the annual blue and gold banquet of Cub Scout Pack 69, held last week at Dixon school with more than 160 cubs, parents and guests present.

Fred G. Joechen, Shawnee district chairman of the Columbiana County Council of Boy Scouts, was guest speaker. He presented the pack's charter to Mrs. Louis A. Cosentino, president of the Catholic Women's Guild which sponsors the unit.

The awards were handed out by Hal Johnson, cubmaster. Four new members of the pack are Jeffrey Russell, Robert Hum, Richard Bott and Gary Burt.

MRS. IRENE ZELLERS combined a 202 single game and 521 series to sweep individual honors in action this week in the Ladies Bowling League.

Miss Olive Ramsey had a 198 single game and 512 series. Heck's Restaurant maintains its top rung location. Citizens Bank slipped into second place, winning three games from the previous occupant, Rohrer's Supply.

Chessman's New Date With Gas Chamber Set

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Caryl Chessman's new appointment with the gas chamber is May 2.

Superior Judge Clement D. Nye set the date Wednesday for the condemned sex terrorist over the vigorous objections of Chessman's attorneys. The lawyers claimed a new execution date could not be set until a 60-day reprieve, granted Feb. 19, by Gov. Edmund G.

Brown has expired. Nye said sentence is legal because the new execution date is after the end of the 60-day period.

In San Quentin, where Chessman has eluded execution for 11 years with a series of court appeals, the convict-author commented: "It doesn't look as if I'll reach the age of Jack Benny."

The famed comedian, who is 66 for years has jokingly claimed he is 39. Chessman will be 39 May 27.

ISRAELI KILL ARAB

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—The army said a Israeli patrol ran into three armed Arab infiltrators Wednesday east of the Gaza Strip, killed one and wounded another in an exchange of gunfire.

The army claimed the three Arabs carried submachine guns and had penetrated 6.2 miles into Israeli territory. Israel filed a complaint with the U. N. Emergency Force assigned to keep the truce along the border.

QUAKE HAVOC — Rows of shattered windows are all the remains discernable in the wreckage of the huge Saada Hotel after the building collapsed in the earthquake which devastated Agadir, Morocco. Several houses were buried under the hotel's debris. An estimated 5,000 to 6,000 died in the leveled tourist resort-seaport.

President's S. American Tour Has Far-Reaching Effects

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Although ending on a note of turbulence, President Eisenhower's 10-day South American tour demonstrated that Latin America holds a tremendous reservoir of good will for the United States.

But the isolated anti-U.S. incidents that cropped up in each of the four countries Eisenhower visited served as a warning that the United States must keep on its toes if good relations are to be maintained.

U.S. officials agree that a strong follow-through on the tour is needed—and there already are signs that it will be made.

More than any other single U.S. move in recent years, the President's visit to Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Uruguay served to strengthen ties among the 21 nations of the Western Hemisphere. It has created an atmosphere in which the solution of specific and touchy problems could come more easily.

Here is a brief recapitulation of some of the obvious achievements of the trip:

It recemented U.S. relations with Brazil, a traditional ally, and showed the strength of the new friendship between the United States and Argentina, a long-time critic.

It clarified for an important segment of Latin America's population the position of the United States as a supporter of peace, nonintervention, democracy and economic development. This clarification was conveyed by the most direct means possible to the estimated three to four million people who saw the President in person, watched him on TV, or heard him on the radio.

It added new impetus to Eisenhower's hopes of bringing Latin America more closely into the free world alliance. He talked with each of the four countries' presidents on the forthcoming East-West summit meeting. It emphasized Washington's support of curbs on the arms race in Latin America. Eisenhower stressed repeatedly that savings from such curbs could go for economic development.

It enabled Eisenhower to stress that the United States—contrary to some Latin-American thought—does not have inexhaustible financial resources. He made this

WIFE OF MISSING AIRMAN APPEALS TO PRESIDENT FOR HELP

Placed in the tragic position of being neither wife nor widow, Mrs. James Ferguson, Jr., of La Porte, Ind., lives each day in hope of receiving further news about her missing airman-husband, whose plane was shot down over Russia 18 months ago.

In a special appeal to President Eisenhower, Mrs. Ferguson begs that the fate of her husband and the other four missing airmen be taken up directly with Russia's Premier Khrushchev.

Don't miss the moving account of a wife's plea to "Help Me Get My Husband Back!" in Family Weekly, distributed with your Saturday edition of THE SALEM NEWS.

Any opera star will tell you that the New York Metropolitan audience is one of the toughest and most exacting in the world, but, at 24, beautiful Anna Moffo succeeded in winning its admiration and unrestrained applause for her brilliant performance as Violetta in Verdi's "La Traviata." Read about her meteoric climb from an unknown singer to an acclaimed opera star in the Family Weekly article, "The Shoemaker's Daughter Makes the Met."

Phone Talk Spans 20 Years of Separation

MOSCOW (AP)—A two-minute telephone talk Wednesday night spanned 20-years of heartbreak and separation for the Armonas family.

Still waiting final Soviet exit papers, Mrs. Barbara Armonas and her son, Johnny, 19, talked with her husband and daughter, Donna, 24, in-Copenhagen.

John Armonas Sr. and Donna who have lived in the United States since the family was separated in 1939, flew to Copenhagen Wednesday to await the rest of the family. Donna had appealed to Nikita S. Khrushchev to let her mother and brother leave Lithuania when the Soviet premier visited the United States last fall.

The U.S. embassy has obtained the documents for Mrs. Armonas and her son to enter the United States, and their papers are now in the hands of Soviet authorities for approval of exit visas.

Mrs. Armonas said she is hopeful of leaving by Friday afternoon or Saturday morning for a family reunion in Denmark.

Mr. and Mrs. Armonas lived in the United States from 1929 to 1935. They came to Lithuania for a visit and delayed returning. The father and daughter left in 1939 when World War II loomed. Mrs. Armonas stayed behind to have a baby, and she and her son were trapped by the Russians. The father and daughter have been living in Wickliffe, Ohio.

TRAIN KILLS TWO WOMEN

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Two elderly women were killed south of here Wednesday night when their auto was struck by a freight train during a heavy snowstorm. The victims were identified as Mrs. Marie West, 60, and Mrs. Mary Alice Shope, 83, both of Clifton, near the crash scene.

The Highway Patrol said the crash occurred about 12 miles south of here where U.S. 42 and Selma Road both intersect the Pennsylvania Railroad's main line. There are continuous blinkers on U.S. 42 but the other road is unguarded.

Ohio Airmen Safe After Bailing Out

FAIR BLUFF, N. C. (AP)—Sgt. J. M. Short, 29, of Mansfield, Ohio, was found safe near here Wednesday after he and two others were ordered to parachute from an ice-laden Air Force transport.

All three enlisted men were reported in good condition after spending about four hours in a swamp in sub-freezing weather during a snowstorm.

"We were at about 1,000 feet when the men jumped," said 1st Lt. Peyton R. Coffman of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the pilot. Heavy icing all over the plane made it sluggish and difficult to control, he added. A co-pilot and flight engineer remained with the pilot as he landed the two engine C123 troop carrier safely.

The snowstorm diverted the flight, which originated at McGuire Air Force Base, N. J., from Pope AFB, N.C., to Myrtle Beach AFB, S.C.

Biggest Tournament Crowd to See Quaker Cage Contest

Two Games On Tap Friday

Howland To Meet Warren In Other

BY DICK BRAUTIGAM

The largest crowd to date in the Youngstown Sectional Class AA basketball tournament is expected at South Field House Friday night to see the Salem Quakers make their tournament debut.

Athletic Director Fred Cope reports that the large batch of tickets sent to Salem for the game has been exhausted. He will attempt to obtain more today.

Tournament Director Dave Williams remarked to The News that it will be good to see the Quakers in town again. The largest crowd at the Field House thus far in three nights of action was 1,027 who witnessed a tripleheader on Saturday.

SALEM FANS alone are expected to surpass that total on Friday.

There are two games on tap Friday. Following the 7:30 p. m. game between Salem and Champion, Warren will take on Howland. The winners will clash at 8:45 on Saturday in the finals.

Salem prepped for its tourney opener last night by working out on the South Field House floor.

Coach John Cabas reports that his crew is in good physical shape. Practice sessions this week have been spirited. The Quakers will go into Friday's fray with a nine-day rest since their last game.

THE QUAKERS will take a 16-2 season record into the tourney and an Associated Press ranking as the sixth best Class AA team in the state. Salem will be a strong favorite over Champion which has a 10-9 record, including a 44-31 tournament victory over Leavittsburg.

Salem will wear light and Champion dark jerseys for the game.

Coach John Cabas, who is in his 10th year at the helm of the Quakers, has a 16-9 tournament record. Eight of those wins came last year when the Quakers advanced to the state finals before losing out to Cleveland East Tech.

In three of the other eight seasons, Salem lost its opening tournament game. Three times the Quakers played three tourney tilts and on the other two occasions they bowed out in their second encounter.

Rodriguez Wins Decision Over Vejar

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Luis Rodriguez had no sooner finished thumping Chico Vejar when he raised a new clamor for a welterweight title bout with Don Jordan.

"Why should Kid Peret fight Jordan instead of me?" the 21-year-old Cuban flash asked in his dressing room. "He's fourth-ranked challenger and I'm first-ranked."

No one was offering any rebuttal, least of all the veteran Vejar, who lost a unanimous 10-round decision to Rodriguez Wednesday night at Miami Beach Exhibition Hall.

"He has the fastest pair of hands of any man I've fought," Vejar said. "I think he'll go a long way in either welterweight or middleweight classes."

Vejar, 28, from Stamford, Conn., weighed 154½ and Rodriguez 149½ for their bout.

Rodriguez decked Vejar for a five-count in the sixth round and staggered him in the fifth, seventh and ninth cantos.

Rose Bowl Pact Near End

5-5 Vote on Renewal Virtual Certainty

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Almost certain death awaits the Rose Bowl pact today as Big Ten faculty representatives and athletic directors open their three-day post-winter session here at noon.

The football agreement is No. 1 on the agenda and a 5-5 vote on renewal is a virtual certainty. A majority vote is necessary for approval. Results of the ballot will be announced at 5 p.m.

Minnesota, Ohio State, Northwestern, Illinois and Wisconsin are a solid bloc against renewing the pact and Michigan, Michigan State, Purdue, Iowa and Indiana are for it.

In the past 14 years the agreement has poured five million dollars into the Western Conference treasuries. During its effect conference schools have won 12 and lost two Rose Bowl battles. Each Big Ten member has profited by about $25,000 from the pact, with the competing school getting twice that much and a full share going to the commissioner's office.

An early-arriving athletic director sounded the familiar theme that loss of the Rose Bowl will hurt the entire conference in recruiting football talent. But such arguments failed to sway member schools in their instructions to their representatives here.

Also on the agenda today are an offer of three million dollars for the privilege of televising all Big Ten sports over a three-year period and a new attempt to take out of Big Ten regulations a rule which would allow individual members to accept a Rose Bowl invitation. Acceptance of the TV offer would defy NCAA rules.

Colavito Puts on Uniform Today

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Rocky Colavito, his holdout ended, was to put on his Cleveland Indians' uniform today and join the rest of the Tribesmen in training camp here.

Rocky flew here Wednesday night and turned in his signed contract, which will pay him $35,000.

General Manager Frank Lane, happy to have all his players under contract, commented that more important than having Rocky at Tucson "was the reason he gave—that he thinks we can win the pennant and he wants to do everything he can to help. That's the attitude I like."

Lane said from his home at St. Petersburg, Fla., there will be no more talk of trading Rocky. He said there had been "some serious swap talk with the Tigers in which Harvey Kuenn and Colavito were mentioned."

The general manager said only one minor trade was considered at the moment.

"A couple of clubs have expressed interest in Billy Moran," Lane said. "They need a utility infielder. If I can get a good prospect in exchange, I'll deal him."

Minneapolis Faces Cincinnati Tonight

By The Associated Press
Minneapolis can complete the National Basketball Assn. playoff picture tonight by defeating Cincinnati in the first game of a doubleheader at Philadelphia.

The Lakers clinched a tie for third place in the Western Division Wednesday night by downing the New York Knicks 123-113 as Elgin Baylor tossed in 46 points. Cincinnati must win all of its remaining three games while the Lakers drop their five to tie for the last playoff spot.

Boston's Celtics turned on all of their finesse to whip the Philadelphia Warriors 133-119 in the nightcap to the Lakers - Knicks game. Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain was the high scorer with 39 points.

Marietta Scores 74-66 Upset Win Over Ohio University

Pioneers Roll In Second Half

Dayton Wins 75-69;
John Carroll Bows

By The Associated Press
Remember the operetta "Naughty Marietta?"

Ohio University's basketball Bobcats probably have worse words than "naughty" today for Marietta (College). The little riverside school up and knocked off the NCAA tournament-bound cats 74-66 Wednesday night in one of the upsets of the season.

For a half, things went along as expected, Ohio U. carrying a 40-31 lead into intermission. Then the Pioneers began to ramble. They whizzed into a 46-45 lead with 12 minutes to go and after a 46-46 knot they rolled in front to stay.

Carl Wolfe was Marietta's big gun with 30 points. Larry Kruger led the losers with 17.

Ohio, which meets Notre Dame in an NCAA tourney test at Lexington, Ky., next week, now has a 16-6 record. Marietta takes a 10-0 record into this weekend's Ohio Conference tourney finals at Akron, which they reached last Saturday via another upset in halting a lengthy Capital U. win streak.

Elsewhere in Ohio, Dayton braced open a 37-37 halftime deadlock to edge Detroit 75-69 despite Dave Busschere's 34 points for the Titans. Both teams are set to play in the National Invitation tournament next week. Each now carries a 19-6 log.

Garry Roggenbuck netted 20 points for the Flyers, who won on free throws with 23 of 31 to Detroit's 15 of 23.

Two good won-lost records were besmirched as Loyola of Chicago won 89-75 over President's Conference kingpin John Carroll (12-5) and St. Francis (Pa.) racked up an easy 98-69 conquest of Steubenville (17-6).

Christians Defeat Emmanuel Lutherans

Christian built up an early lead, then hung on to defeat a fast closing Emmanuel Lutheran cage squad 34-32 in a Class D Church League game played Wednesday at the Memorial Building.

The winners held quarter leads of 12-6, 18-12 and 29-22.

The contest scheduled last night between league leading Memorial Building and second place Methodist was postponed until Wednesday.

The Penn State football team won 50 consecutive games on its home field between 1889 and 1908.

Imposes Midnight Curfew on Phils

Sawyer Out to Finish Job He Lost In 1952

By The Associated Press
Eddie Sawyer is getting tough again. The Philadelphia Phillies' manager, onetime fatherly boss of the 1950 pennant-winning Whiz Kids, is apparently out to finish the job he lost in 1952.

Sawyer, who admittedly is working on a "win or else basis," Wednesday told the current crop of Phils:

"All you fellows who have a lot of money stay out after 12 and we'll take some of it."

So there is a midnight curfew in Clearwater, Fla., where the Phillies are in spring training.

The last time Sawyer talked that way it was the manager who was eliminated.

Eddie first came to the Phils in midseason 1948. Two and a half years later he had the National League pennant, the Phils' first in 35 years.

But the proud Whiz Kids slipped to fifth in 1951, and Sawyer got tough. Players' wives were barred from spring training. Player discontent grew. People said Sawyer was too easy. The players lost respect for Sawyer. And by late July Sawyer was out of work.

But the Whiz Kids never recovered and last July the Phils brought Eddie back to run the club.

Only pitchers Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons remain from the Whiz Kids, and Eddie must count on them to help the Phils improve from their last-place finish of 1959.

The American League's last-place team, the Washington Senators, were cheered when Harmon Killebrew, their young slugger, turned up for workouts at Orlando, and hit the fourth pitch over the 385-foot sign in left center field, with Cleveland's Rocky Colavito.

Killebrew shared the league home run championship last year at 42 with Cleveland's Rocky Colavito.

Colavito arrived at the Indian's training camp in Tucson Wednesday and promptly signed his contract although he had said he wasn't happy over the terms. He was reported to have signed for approximately $35,000, a 25 per cent increase. The Yankees, however, apparently were no closer to coming to terms with their slugger, Mickey Mantle.

From his Dallas, Tex., home Mickey said "I've been waiting on them to call me. I'm going to continue—I guess." Mantle has rejected a contract calling for a $15,000 cut from his $75,000 of last year.

In 1958, Score had a 2-3 record and last year he went 9-11.

Wilks watched Wednesday while Score pitched batting practice. After the 15-minute session, the two went into a huddle, and Score learned that once again he was doing everything wrong.

His stride was bad, his delivery was stiff, and he was wasting energy by pushing his body upward rather than forward off his left foot. Patiently, Wilks had Herb go through each motion until he was doing it properly again.

Score won 16 and lost 10 for Cleveland in 1955. The next year he won 20 and lost 9, but early in 1957 he was hit in the eye by a batted ball and sidelined the rest of the season.

Volleyball Crown Kept By Kiwanis

Kiwanis successfully defended its Adults Volleyball League title Wednesday night at the Memorial Building by defeating Post Office three games to one in a best-of-five playoff.

Post Office was the first round champion while Kiwanis captured the second half title.

In their playoff battle last night, Kiwanis captured the first two games by scores of 15-6 and 11-9. Post Office snapped back into contention by walking away with the third fray, 15-5.

The clincher came in a hectic fourth game when Kiwanis came through under pressure to pull out an 11-9 overtime victory.

Regis Tripped By Air Force

Western Kentucky
Rumps Over ETS

By The Associated Press
Colorful Ed Diddle's Western Kentucky Hilltoppers and Maj. Bob Spear and his young, eager Air Force Falcons are teams No. 14 and 15 for the fast-filling 25-team NCAA basketball tournament today. By nightfall, St. Joseph's of Philadelphia probably will have joined the list.

The Air Force, making its first NCAA appearance, accepted an at-large invitation Wednesday while the Falcons were rolling up their 12th victory in their last 16 games, 65-58 over Regis. Western Kentucky, in the tournament for the first time since 1940, wrapped up the Ohio Valley Conference championship and an automatic berth in the NCAA showdown with an 83-69 romp over East Tennessee State.

At the same time, St. Joseph's set up its probable selection as the Middle Atlantic Conference representative to the tourney by clinching the M-A university division title in a 78-66 victory over Lafayette.

The night's developments left the NCAA with eight at-large teams, NYU, Miami of Florida, Notre Dame, Navy, Idaho State, California, DePaul and Air Force, and with seven conference representatives determined—Ohio U. of the Mid-American, Georgia Tech of the Southeastern, Ohio State of the Big Ten, West Virginia of the Southern, Texas of the Southwest, Western Kentucky of the OVC and New Mexico State of the Border.

The eventual Ivy League winner (Princeton currently leads) gets one at-large berth while the NCAA will pick Sunday between Oregon and Oregon State and Southern California and UCLA for the two others.

North Carolina and Wake Forest are favorites in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament opening a three-day run in Raleigh, N.C. today to pick the ACC's champ and team for the NCAA. Conference races still undecided are the Missouri Valley, where Cincinnati has clinched at least a tie; the Big Eight, where Kansas and Kansas State are tied with one game to go; the West Coast Athletic Conference, where Pepperdine has clinched at least a tie; the Skyline, where Utah leads Utah State by a game with two games to go; and the Yankee, where Connecticut is 7-2 with one to go and Maine 6-2 with two to play.

Brubaker Snaps 3 Mt. Union Records

ALLIANCE—Dave Brubaker, 6'3 forward, broke three Mount Union College records this past basketball season.

Last Saturday night as the Raiders fell to defeat at the hands of Akron U., the rangy forward dumped in 22 points to make his the highest scorer for one season in the history of the college.

Brubaker ended the 1959-60 campaign with a total of 476 points, 11 better than the former record of 467 held by Don "Goose" Talbert in 1955-56.

He also broke another record set by Talbert in 1955-56, when he scored 196 field goals compared to Talbert's 163. In setting the scoring mark, Brubaker took 501 shots which broke the old record of 395 set by Lee Thomas in 1953-54.

Teammate Bob McMaster broke the record for the best foul shooting percentage held by Bruce Pumphrey in 1954-55, with an average of 80 per cent. Senior Ed Agnoni finished the season as one of the highest rebounders in the school's history. He broke the single game high of 25 rebounds set by Bill Roof last year.

Miami Beach, Fla. — Luis Rodriguez, 149½, Cuba, outpointed Chico Vejar, 154½, Stamford, Conn., 10.

Speculation Mounts About Managerial Post for Williams

SCOTTDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Is there a managerial job in Ted Williams' future?

Speculation rippled through spring training camps today on the heels of the announcement the 41-year-old slugger, last of the 400 hitters, will serve as part-time batting coach for the Boston Red Sox.

After a conference with General Manager Bucky Harris, field boss Billy Jurges called a press meeting Wednesday to announce the assignment for Williams "in addition to his regular chores."

Ted, bothered by a painful neck ailment for a full year, said he doubted if he could play when he reported to camp Monday. However, he admitted he felt better Wednesday, ran hard, poled a couple of drives over the right field wall and barked:

"I didn't come out here to be a pinchhitter."

The idea of the great lefthanded batsman becoming a managerial possibility has been bantered about in the Boston press for several years. The stir went beyond Red Sox fandom with the announcement of his coaching duties.

Williams shrugs it off. "It's nothing really new," Ted said. "I've been helping any hitter who asked for 10 or 12 years now."

MAN'S BODY FOUND

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Police found the body of Theodore C. Clark, 69, of Woodville in his automobile about two miles north of here Wednesday. The vehicle had left U.S. 68 at a curve and run into some trees. There were no marks on the body and officials believe the death may have been due to natural causes. Coroner Austin Richards ordered an autopsy.

Papers on the body showed Clark was employed by Atlas Industries of Fremont.

Decorative Items Enhance Custard Cake

One of the nicest things about a good cake is that, sure of the cake, you can turn your creative talents toward delicious, decorative frostings and trims. In fact, the cook with a favorite cake mix, a variety of fine flavoring extracts and a color kit on her pantry shelves need never fear a dessert crisis.

The pretty cake here, with its sunny yellow daisy on white frosting, is just such a blend; a lemon flake cake mix with a rich almond custard filling and seven minute frosting, also delicately flavored with the pure almond extract which is particularly harmonious with the cake's flavor.

Tinted coconut and gum drops make the flower—so simple that even very junior cooks can take over.

Custard-Filled Lemon Cake
1 package lemon flake cake mix, 1 1/4 cups water, 2 eggs, unbeaten. Filling

1-3 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, Dash of salt, 1 cup milk, 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/4 teaspoon almond extract, 1/2 cup flaked coconut.

Empty cake mix into bowl. Add water and eggs. Beat 3 minutes until smooth and creamy. Pour batter into two greased and floured 9-inch layer pans. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) 35 to 40 minutes. Cool layers.

Meanwhile combine sugar, flour and salt in saucepan. Add milk, bring to a boil, and boil 1 minute, stirring constantly.

Pour a small amount over egg yolks, mixing well; then return to pan and boil 1 minute longer, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat. Add butter. Cool; then stir in extract and coconut. Spread between layers. Frost with a favorite frosting and decorate with tinted coconut.

Bliss Scholarships Again Available to Area Students

The scholarship program sponsored by the E. W. Bliss Co. will be continued this year, marking the fifth straight year the firm has given financial aid to students.

Announcement of the continuation of the program was made today by George Perrault Jr., Salem Division manager.

Twenty-four students, chosen in competitive interviews in the last four years, are now being assisted in obtaining engineering degrees in the nation's colleges under this program. They are located at 15 universities and include candidates for mechanical, electrical and metallurgical engineering degrees. Represented among the 24 are students sponsored by each of the company's major manufacturing divisions.

Administered through the company's personnel offices, this year's program will start with the fall term and the scholarships will be renewable each year as the student's need and eligibility continues.

The amount of financial assistance will be determined by individual need, Mr. Perrault said.

To qualify as a candidate, each applicant must have graduated from high school at a fairly recent date with good scholastic rating and take qualifying tests prescribed and administered by the company.

Applications must be made by April 15 on forms obtainable at the company's personnel office here. Interviews will follow, and the company's scholarship board will make the final selections.

The scholarship student may select the engineering college he desires to attend. His curriculum should lead to a bachelor's degree in engineering, and he must maintain scholastic and personal standards satisfactory to the college of his choice.

Already studying engineering under the Bliss Scholarship Program from the Salem Division are George C. Dahms of 1535 Southeast Boulevard, at Youngstown University; Richard Buta of the Depot Road, at Case Institute of Technology; and John Sinsley, RD 2, Columbiana, at Case Institute of Technology.

'Down On The Farm'

News of Meetings, Helpful Hints For Farmers

Animal-Control Campaign

A Columbiana County man has been employed by the state as animal control agent to combat mounting losses caused to Columbiana County orchardists by small animals.

Joseph Papania, a New Waterford orchardist, heads the animal control campaign co-sponsored by the Ohio Department of Agriculture and the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Much of the damage to orchards is caused by mice which gnaw the roots, thereby killing the trees. With the aid of the county extension agents, Papania has been working with local growers to determine the present control practices in use, evaluate them, and to make recommendations where necessary.

This includes making investigations of population, species and present rate of damage occurring in the orchards, and developing new control procedures. Work is centered in Northeast Ohio because of the concentration of orchards there.

Mouse damage is insidious and may catch growers completely unaware, Papania warns. Trees that have lost many of their roots or that are girdled may show no effects for as much as two years.

Papania urges all county orchardists to remain alert and equipped to handle mouse problems between Oct. 1 and April 30.

The best control measure include both proper cultural practices and reduction of mouse numbers. Recommended baiting procedures include hand placement of specially treated grain bates during the early fall of each year.

Toxic ground sprays are also used as rodenticides, but are seldom more effective, besides being more expensive and hazardous than grain bates.

Results of Papania's work this year will be summarized and circulated to growers and county agents. Plans are being made to continue the program next year through cooperation of both the state-federal project and local grower organizations, Floyd Lower, county farm agent, said.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

On Feb. 17, a letter of considerable importance—to the nation—was dropped into a Washington mailbox. It was addressed to Robert F. Kennedy.

On that day, as on the few previous days, the members of the Senate racket probing committee were going over the proofs of their series of final reports.

They found that a "second government" exists in the United States. Certainly it exists if the arson, the terror, the extortion, the mayhem, the pillaging of union funds, the brutal beating of men, the destruction of private property and the sheer disdain for our own government's law and order are accurately recorded in those final reports.

Those crimes, that looting, that desecration of American labor and management were disclosed under the questioning of chief counsel Robert F. Kennedy.

If Mr. Kennedy handled three years of committee probing with fairness and equal rights to all, then the second government exists and still must be fought.

It is therefore, important to appraise Robert Kennedy's conduct of the Senate inquiry into the inequity of the underworld's hold on some unions and some management.

That handling was appraised in the letter which was mailed to Kennedy on Feb. 17.

THE LETTER was written by Arthur Goldberg, special counsel to the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee. Therefore, there could be no severer critic. This is what Goldberg wrote, which can now be published for the first time:

"Dear Bob: I want to thank you very much for your kindness in sending me a copy of your book, 'The Enemy Within.'"

"The publication of your book, which I have read with great interest and which I have found to be readable, provocative and informative, affords me a welcome opportunity to express to you my views concerning your work as counsel to the Select Committee on Improper Practices in the Labor or Management Field.

"As you accurately report in your book, you and I first became acquainted at the outset of the committee's work when we lunched together and shortly after at a subsequent lunch in the Senate dining room, together with Se McClellan and Mr. (George) Meany (president of the AFL-CIO).

"At our first meeting you told me in straightforward terms that in your capacity as counsel for the committee, you intended to carry on the committee's work in a fair and impartial manner and without any bias, fear or favor.

"I think it appropriate to say that throughout the entire course of the conduct of the committee's activities, you never departed from this statement of your objectives.

"I followed your work through, out and am aware of no instance where any legitimate, honest labor leader or labor organization had any cause for complaint because of your conduct as counsel of the committee's affairs.

"I think you have every reason to be proud of your outstanding work on behalf of the committee and of the contribution that you have made to decent, honest, democratic American trade unionism.

"With kindest personal regards, I am,

"Yours cordially,
"Arthur"

THIS LETTER says, in effect, that labor's most distinguished attorney believes that the McClellan committee hearings never were conducted so they'd harm a clean union. It also reveals for the first time that Sen. McClellan and Robert Kennedy did consult with the president of the AFL-CIO.

Therefore, at no one time was the hearing even remotely anti-labor—simply anti the rackets which had infiltrated and seized some unions. These were then used as a base for power to aid the mobsters who had infiltrated industry by setting up their own firms.

Thus the underworld was able to put legitimate labor and business in a vise.

Therefore, the McClellan committee reports should become the basis for action all across the land.

Leftovers Inspire Rice Dish

A reader asks how to prepare Fried Rice often enjoyed in Chinese restaurants.

Although there are innumerable variations of this dish, soy sauce and onion scallions (or both) always season the rice.

Unless your cooked rice is firm, you are likely to have Fried Rice Mush! Converted type or long-grain rice cooked in a minimum amount of water to the proper stage for this dish will be done through but not soft.

Chinese Fried Rice recipes usually include egg and there are a couple of ways of adding it. We think you'll be most successful with the method given here.

Roast Pork Fried Rice

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons peanut or other salad (not olive) oil, 1/2 cup diced roast pork, 2 cups firm-cooked converted-type or long-grain rice (chilled), 1-3 cup diced green celery, 1-3 cup diced green pepper, 2 scallions (sliced thin crosswise with green tops included), 2 tablespoons soy sauce, egg strips.

Method: Slowly heat a 10-inch iron skillet until very hot; add oil and heat. Add pork and brown lightly. Add rice and heat rapidly tossing.

Add celery, pepper, scallions and soy sauce; continue heating rapidly. Garnish with egg strips. Serve at once. Makes 2 large or 4 small servings.

Egg Strips: Heat 1 teaspoon oil in a 6-inch skillet; add a lightly beaten egg; cook until firm on bottom, drawing egg away from edge of pan so rest of egg can run over when pan is tilted. Turn and cook other side. Turn out and cut in strips.

Flame Salad

Ingredients: 2 cups torn pieces romaine or other lettuce (packed down), 1 large red Delicious apple, 1 cup halved seeded Tokay grapes, French dressing, salt, freshly-ground pepper.

Method: Turn romaine into a salad bowl. Quarter apple and remove core; do not peel.

Cut apple quarters in half lengthwise and slice into thin fan-shaped pieces; add to romaine with grapes.

Toss at once with enough French dressing to moisten and add salt and pepper to taste. Serve at once. Make 2 servings.

Beef Stew—Caraway Dumplings

(Makes 3 servings)

Stew: Two pounds beef stew meat, cut in 1 1/2-inch cubes; 2 tablespoons shortening, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 clove garlic, minced; 1 cup coarsely chopped onion, 1 bouillon cube, 3 cups water, 10 medium carrots, cut in half; one 10 1/2-ounce package frozen peas.

DUMPLINGS: One package easy corn bread mix, 1 tablespoon caraway seed, 1 egg, unbeaten; 1-3 cup milk.

For stew, brown beef in shortening in large kettle or Dutch oven. Pour off drippings. Add salt, pepper, garlic, onion, bouillon cube and water. Cover and simmer 1 1/2 hours.

Add carrots; cover and simmer 10 minutes longer. While carrots are cooking, prepare dumplings. Put caraway seed, egg and milk into bag of mix. Squeeze upper part of bag to force air out. Close top of bag by holding tightly between thumb and index finger. With bag resting on table, mix by working bag vigorously with fingers. (Mix about 40 seconds or until egg is completely blended.)

Add peas to stew. For each dumpling, squeeze bag to empty 1/4 of batter (about 3 tablespoons) onto boiling stew. Repeat squeezing bag to form 8 dumplings. Cover tightly and simmer 18 minutes. Do not remove cover during cooking. Serve immediately.

The Doctor Says

By HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN, M.D.

Psychotic Must Have Treatment

We've been concerned with mental quirks that did not involve total personality. That is to say I might have an unreasonable fear of cats and you of fire. But, in all other respects, each of us does his job meets his responsibilities, gets along acceptably with daily contacts, and has a decent respect for the quirks of "odd-balls" and the neurotic reactions of other neurotics.

Dr. H. T. Hyman

In contrast to these so-called partial reactions, the most serious of the mental disturbances, the psychosis, is a total reaction.

Perhaps you will have a better understanding of what is meant by a total reaction if you watch a child at play.

The little girl, alone in a room with her dolls, becomes a mother caring for her baby. She talks to it. It answers. She expresses her pleasure when the response is satisfactory. She scolds when the doll baby is disobedient.

So too, the little boy, dressed in cowboy costume, doing battle with marauding Indians in an empty yard. He fires and falls to the ground. Advances for a second round.

Throws himself behind a hedge to avoid enemy shells. And finally

Parmesan Biscuits

Ingredients: 1 cup self-rising flour, 3/4 cup finely grated Parmesan cheese, 1-3 cup milk, 3/4 cup heavy cream

Method: Measure flour without sifting; turn into a mixing bowl. Stir in Parmesan, then milk and cream; use a fork and mix only until dry ingredients are moistened.

Spoon into small muffin pans (preferably wells holding 2 table-spoons each) and pat down.

Bake in very hot (450 degrees) oven about 12 minutes or until touched with brown. Serve at once. Makes 12 small biscuits.

TO EXTEND PICKETING

CINCINNATI (AP) — Members of the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People plan to extend picketing today to three more suburban F. W. Woolworth stores. Picketing started Monday at a downtown store and extended Tuesday to a second store. The group is protesting Woolworth policy on hiring Negroes, saying these stores hire a few Negroes only for menial tasks.

goes on to victory for the hundredth time as the last of the redskins "bites the dust."

THE DEDICATED actor, when he is "in a role," also makes a total surrender of his personality. For the first week or so of his memorable Hamlet engagement, John Berrymore told me he was the Prince of Denmark from curtain rise to curtain fall. And Henry Fonda felt that he was able to BE Mr. Roberts throughout the entire run of that unforgettable play.

Now when the little girl or the little boy are called for dinner and when the dedicated actor leaves the theater, each has the power to abandon the assumed role and re-enter the world of reality.

NOT SO the psychotic. Depending on the form taken by the psychosis, he remains at all times Napoleon, Hitler or Queen of the May.

He may inhabit a world wherein he is subjected to persecutions of all types (paranoia). He may lose all incentive to carry on (depressive psychosis).

He may believe there are no limits to what he can achieve (manic psychosis). Or he may alternate between Paradise Lost and Paradise Regained (cyclic insanity).

Sometimes the psychosis is due to known cause, like an infectious disease, alcoholism, drug addiction, poisoning, hardening of the arteries or a brain tumor. Then, if the cause can be attacked, there is hope for recovery.

All too often, however, the psychotic reaction is unknown as in schizophrenia (split personality), a disturbance that accounts for 40,000 admissions to our mental hospitals each year.

NOW IF WHAT you've read suggests that maybe you're a bit psychotic, you may rest assured that you're not or you wouldn't even entertain that suspicion. But if you recognize some change in the total personality or behavior of a loved one, it is the course of prudence to seek expert diagnosis and treatment at the earliest possible moment.

One should not through fear or pride expose himself and the Community to the unforeseen consequences of a psychotic behavior reaction.

Nor should vanity or cowardice deprive the loved one of the advantages of intensive treatment begun early in the disease when it can do the most good.

The Easier Racket

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a pavement Plato: Every man at one time or other wonders if, in his next reincarnation, it wouldn't be better to return to earth as a woman.

We have been brooding on this possibility recently and have decided: No, it is not for us.

If we are granted a second life, we prefer to live it again in the masculine gender. It seems the only manly thing to do.

Granted a choice, there are compelling reasons why many a fellow might be tempted to be reborn a woman instead of a man.

For one thing, there is a natural, human curiosity to see at first hand how the other half lives. For another thing, women now control more wealth and live longer than men. These are advantages not to be sneezed at, as long as money is worth spending and life is worth living. But there are important disadvantages. Two that come instantly into the male mind are a couple of worries he doesn't now have:

1. How to fix a run in his stocking.
2. How to stuff a 34-inch waist into a 26-inch girdle, a mathematical impossibility which women achieve every morning.

But there are even more potent arguments to dissuade any sensible man from ever pining for a woman's role in his next life.

In cave-man days life was simple for woman. All she had to do was bear children and cook the meat on days when the old man had some luck hunting.

When the human race started tilling the soil, woman's lot became tougher. She even became kind of a beast of burden. If one of the oxen fell ill, she had to step into the traces and help pull the plow.

Under civilization woman's responsibilities have mushroomed and widened tremendously.

A modern housewife's duties now sound like an occupational roll call made by the U. S. Department of Labor.

She is the family chef, chauffeur, banker, tax expert, business adviser, dishwasher, laundress, plumber, electrician, accountant, educator, paper hanger, maid, butler, nurse, recreation director, master of ceremonies, psychiatrist, judge, jury, warden and chief executioner.

Name any job someone outside the home does for pay, and you'll find she does it inside the home for nothing. She is a one-woman talent agency.

Worst of all is the problem of dealing with the man she marries.

He tells her all he wants is a good wife. But when the kids come along and begin calling her mother, he starts calling her mother, too, and in fact she takes the place of his mother.

Be reborn a woman? No man in his right mind would take a chance. The male world is an easier racket, and every man is racketeer enough to want to hold on to a good thing.
